Science Award 2017

Call for Submissions

The Margaretha Lupac Foundation for Parliamentarism and Democracy Science Award honours a scientist's life achievements, a scientific publication, or a completed and evaluated doctoral thesis which deals with the potentials and strengths but also the challenges and weaknesses of parliamentary democracy and its institutions in Austria. With its work the Foundation seeks to contribute to an in-depth understanding of the foundations, the functioning and the basic values of the Austrian republic and to give an impetus for their broader public discussion, also in the context of the European Union. The Foundation also wants to underline the importance of the principle of tolerance in the discourse on issues of politics, arts and social developments.

The Science Award honours outstanding scientific work in these fields. The publications/doctoral theses submitted should not be older than 3 years.

The Award amounts to a total of € 15,000.-, which may be split between up to three winners. For more detailed information and eligibility criteria, please refer to the submission guidelines which are an integral part of this call for submissions.

Deadline for submissions: 15 June 2017 (postmark)

Applicants are invited to send their submissions by email or postal mail to the
