Nomination of a member of the Committee of the Regions of the European Union

Government decision

In accordance with Article 305 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, the Swedish government has decided to nominate Märta Stenevi (Green Party) of Malmö council as a member of the Committee of the Regions of the European Union until 25 January 2020 (see Annex).

Background

Agneta Granström (Green Party) has resigned from her position in the Committee. The Swedish Association of Local Authorities and Regions has proposed that Märta Stenevi be nominated as a member of the Committee of the Regions of the European Union in place of Agneta Granström.
