COUNCIL DECISION

on the signing of the Stabilisation and Association Agreement between the European Communities and its Member States, of the one part, and the Republic of Serbia, of the other part

Proposal for a

COUNCIL AND COMMISSION DECISION

on the conclusion of the Stabilisation and Association Agreement between the European Communities and their Member States, of the one part, and the Republic of Serbia, of the other part

(presented by the Commission)

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

1. The attached two proposals constitute the legal instruments for the signature and the conclusion of the Stabilisation and Association Agreement between the European Communities and their Member States, on the one part, and the Republic of Serbia, hereinafter called Serbia, on the other part: (i) Proposal for a Council Decision for the signature of the Agreement; (ii) Proposal for a Council and Commission Decision for the conclusion of the Agreement.
2. The Commission presented in April 2005 its Feasibility Report on an SAA with Serbia and Montenegro<sup>1</sup>. The Report concluded that Serbia and Montenegro was sufficiently prepared to negotiate an SAA. The Council decided on 3 October 2005 to authorise the Commission to negotiate a Stabilisation and Association Agreement with Serbia and Montenegro. The negotiation for a Stabilisation and Association Agreement with Serbia and Montenegro was launched on 10 October 2005. As Serbia did not fulfil the conditionality set in the Council Conclusion of 3 October 2005<sup>2</sup>, to fully cooperate with the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia (ICTY), the Commission decided on 3 May 2006 to call off the SAA negotiations
3. Following a referendum in May 2006, the Montenegrin Parliament adopted on 3 June 2006 a Declaration of Independence and the Republic of Montenegro withdrew from the State Union of Serbia and Montenegro. Consequently, amended Negotiating Directives for Serbia were adopted on 24 July 2006
4. The improvements in the cooperation with the ICTY that the new Serbian Government was able to demonstrate in May and June 2007 enabled the Commission to resume negotiations on 13 June. These negotiations were finished on 10 September 2007 and after consultations with the EU Member States, the Stabilisation and Association Agreement was initialled in Brussels on 7 November 2007.
5. The final decision to sign the SAA remains subject to Serbia meeting the political conditionality established when the Council adopted the negotiating Directives - the full cooperation with the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia (ICTY)<sup>3</sup>. The present proposal does not prejudge the assessment of Serbia's compliance with its obligations in this regard.

At the adoption of the negotiating Directives in October 2005, the Commission and the Council jointly declared that before the final decision can be taken:

1. the Commission will report on the political conditionality to the Council and that;
2. the Council and Commission will jointly review the progress made by Serbia.

Consequently, the Commission will, in due time and in line with the joint declaration, report to the Council and will jointly review progress with the Council before the final decision can be taken to sign the SAA with Serbia.

6. The Stabilisation and Association Agreement focuses on the following main elements:

- provision for political dialogue with Serbia;
  - provisions on enhanced regional co-operation, including the perspective of establishing free trade areas between the countries of the region;
  - the perspective of the establishment of a free-trade area between the Community and Serbia within five years of the entry into force of the Agreement;
  - provisions on the movement of workers, freedom of establishment, supply of services, current payments and movement of capital;
  - the commitment by Serbia to approximate its legislation to that of the EC, notably in key areas of the internal market;
  - provisions on co-operation with Serbia in a wide range of fields, including justice, freedom and security.
  - provision for the establishment of a Stabilisation and Association Council which supervises the implementation of the Agreement, of a Stabilisation and Association Committee and a Stabilisation and Association Parliamentary Committee.
7. The Commission asks the Council to give its final approval to the text of the SAA and to engage the procedures for the signature and conclusion of this Agreement on the basis of the attached two proposals.
8. The procedures for the signature and the conclusion of the Agreement are different for the two European Communities: (the European Community and the European Atomic Energy Community):
- a) as regards signature, the first indent, first sentence of Article 300 (2) of the EC Treaty provides for a separate Council Decision concerning the signing of the Agreement on behalf of the European Community; similar acts are not required under the EAEC Treaty
  - b) as regards conclusion of the Agreement:
    - The Council concludes the Agreement on behalf of the European Community, after having received the assent of the European Parliament, by virtue of Article 310 of the Treaty;
    - The Council approves the Agreement on behalf of the European Atomic Energy Community by virtue of the second paragraph of Article 101 of the EAEC Treaty and the Agreement is then concluded by the Commission.
9. In line with the above the Commission requests the Council to decide, when Council and Commission will have reached a positive joint review of the political conditionality as referred to in paragraph 5,
- (i) to sign the Agreement on behalf of the European Community;
  - (ii) to conclude the Agreement on behalf of the European Community and to give its approval for conclusion by Euratom.

Ratification by all Member States is a prerequisite for the entry into force of the Agreement.
