THE PREVENTION OF FISCAL EVASION WITH RESPECT TO TAXES ON INCOME, SIGNED AT LONDON ON 30 APRIL 1969 AS AMENDED BY THE PROTOCOL SIGNED AT LONDON ON 17 NOVEMBER 1977 AND BY THE PROTOCOL SIGNED AT LONDON ON

The Republic of Austria

and

the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland,

DESIRING to conclude a Protocol amending the Convention for the avoidance of double taxation and the prevention of fiscal evasion with respect to taxes on income, signed at London on 30 April 1969 as amended by the Protocol signed at London on 17 November 1977 and by the Protocol signed at London on 18 May 1993 (hereinafter referred to as "the Convention"),

Have agreed as follows:

Article I

Article 28 of the Convention shall be deleted and replaced by the following:

“ARTICLE 28

Exchange of Information

1. The competent authorities of the Contracting States shall exchange such information as is foreseeably relevant for carrying out the provisions of this Convention or to the administration or enforcement of the domestic laws concerning taxes of every kind and description imposed on behalf of the Contracting States, or of their political subdivisions or local authorities, insofar as the taxation thereunder is not contrary to the Convention. The exchange of information is not restricted by Articles 1 and 2.

2. Any information received under paragraph 1 by a Contracting State shall be treated as secret in the same manner as information obtained under the domestic laws of that State and shall be disclosed only to persons or authorities (including courts and administrative bodies) concerned with the assessment or collection of, the enforcement or prosecution in respect of, the determination of appeals in relation to the taxes referred to in paragraph 1, or the oversight of the above. Such persons or authorities shall use the information only for such purposes. They may disclose the information in public court proceedings or in judicial decisions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, information received by a Contracting State may be used for other purposes when such information may be used for such other purposes under the laws of both States and the competent authority of the supplying State authorises such use.

3. In no case shall the provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 be construed so as to impose on a Contracting State the obligation:

a. to carry out administrative measures at variance with the laws and administrative practice of that or of the other Contracting State;

b. to supply information which is not obtainable under the laws or in the normal course of the administration of that or of the other Contracting State;

c. to supply information which would disclose any trade, business, industrial, commercial or professional secret or trade process, or information the disclosure of which would be contrary to public policy (ordre public).

4. If information is requested by a Contracting State in accordance with this Article, the other Contracting State shall use its information gathering measures to obtain the requested information, even though that other State may not need such information for its own tax purposes. The obligation contained in the preceding sentence is subject to the limitations of paragraph 3 but in no case shall such limitations be construed to permit a Contracting State to decline to supply information solely because it has no domestic interest in such information.

5. In no case shall the provisions of paragraph 3 be construed to permit a Contracting State to decline to supply information solely because the information is held by a bank, other financial institution, nominee or person acting in an agency or a fiduciary capacity or because it relates to ownership interests in a person.”

Article II

The Contracting States shall notify to each other through diplomatic channels the completion of the procedures required by its laws for the bringing into force of this Protocol. The Protocol shall enter into force on the date of the later of these notifications and shall have effect with regard to taxable periods beginning on or after 1 January of the calendar year next following the year of the entry into force of this Protocol.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the undersigned, duly authorised thereto, have signed this Protocol.

ADDITIONAL PROTOCOL

At the signing of the Protocol amending the Convention for the Avoidance of Double Taxation and the Prevention of Fiscal Evasion with respect to Taxes on Income, signed at London on 30 April 1969 as amended by the Protocol signed at London on 17 November 1977 and by the Protocol signed at London on 18 May 1993, this day concluded between the Republic of Austria and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the undersigned have agreed that the following provisions shall form an integral part of the Protocol:

In relation to Article 28:

It is understood that:

1. The competent authority of the applicant State shall provide the following information to the competent authority of the requested State when making a request for information under the Convention to demonstrate the foreseeable relevance of the information to the request:

- a. the identity of the person under examination or investigation;
- b. a statement of the information sought including its nature and the form in which the applicant State wishes to receive the information from the requested State;
- c. the tax purpose for which the information is sought;
- d. grounds for believing that the information requested is held in the requested State or is in the possession or control of a person within the jurisdiction of the requested State;
- e. to the extent known, the name and address of any person believed to be in possession of the requested information;
- f. a statement that the applicant State has pursued all means available in its own territory to obtain the information, except those that would give rise to disproportionate difficulties.

2. It is understood that the standard of 'foreseeable relevance' is intended to provide for exchange of information in tax matters to the widest possible extent and, at the same time, to clarify that Contracting States are not at liberty to engage in 'fishing expeditions' or to request information that is unlikely to be relevant to the tax affairs of a given taxpayer.

3. It is understood that paragraph 5 of Article 28 of the Convention does not require the Contracting States to exchange information within the meaning of that paragraph on a spontaneous or automatic basis.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the undersigned, duly authorised thereto, have signed this Additional Protocol.
