Subject:	EUROPEAN COUNCIL DECISION on the examination by a conference of representatives of the governments of the Member States of the amendment to the Treaties proposed by the Czech Government in the form of a Protocol on the application of the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union to the Czech Republic, to be annexed to the Treaty on European Union and to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and not to convene a Convention

1. On 29 and 30 October 2009, the Heads of State or Government of the 27 Member States of the European Union, meeting within the European Council, agreed that they will, at the time of the conclusion of the next Accession Treaty and in accordance with their respective constitutional requirements, attach the Protocol on the application of the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union to the Czech Republic, to the Treaty on European Union (TEU) and the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (TFEU).
2. On 5 September 2011, the Czech government submitted to the Council, in accordance with the first sentence of Article 48(2) TEU, a proposal for the amendment of the Treaties in the form of a Protocol on the application of the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union to the Czech Republic.

3. On 12 October 2011, in accordance with the third sentence of Article 48(2) TEU, the proposal of the Czech government was submitted by the Council to the European Council. It was also notified to the national parliaments.
4. At its meeting on 23 October 2011, the European Council decided, in accordance with the first subparagraph of Article 48(3) TEU, to consult the European Parliament and the Commission on the proposed amendments. The European Council also decided, in accordance with the second subparagraph of Article 48(3) TEU, to request the consent of the European Parliament not to convene a Convention given that, in its view, the convening of such Convention was not justified by the extent of the proposed amendments.
5. On 22 May 2013 the European Parliament adopted its opinion¹ calling on the European Council not to examine the proposed amendment. At the same time it gave its consent² not to convene a Convention on account of this not being justified by the extent of the proposed amendments.
6. The European Commission adopted a favourable opinion on 4 May 2012.
7. Croatia should be included in the list of High Contracting Parties of the proposed Protocol amending the Treaties after the date of accession, which is foreseen for 1 July 2013.
8. The Permanent Representatives Committee is invited to discuss and endorse the draft Decision set out in doc. EUCO 132/13, as revised by the legal linguistic experts, with a view to its preparation by the Council and subsequent adoption by the European Council.
