The Presidency invites delegations to email written contributions focusing on the most important areas where adjustments are needed and explaining the reason for this, including concrete proposals for provisions that should be redrafted and text amendments to bring about simplification or improve consistency.

The deadline for written contributions is 13 February 2012 at 15:00 Brussels time. They should be sent by email and, if possible, in English, to agriculture.structures@consilium.europa.eu. The Presidency would like to remind you that written contributions submitted in languages other than English will first need to be translated by the Council Secretariat before they can be worked on. Such comments might therefore not always, especially if submitted late, feed into the Working Party meetings.
