Subject:	Proposal for a Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council on the transfer to the General Court of the European Union of jurisdiction at first instance in disputes between the Union and its servants - Outcome of the European Parliament's first reading (Strasbourg, 6 June to 9 June 2016)

I. INTRODUCTION

In accordance with the provisions of Article 294 of the TFEU and the joint declaration on practical arrangements for the codecision procedure ¹, a number of informal contacts have taken place between the Council, the European Parliament and the Commission with a view to reaching an agreement on this dossier at first reading, thereby avoiding the need for second reading and conciliation.

In this context, the rapporteur, Ms Mady DELVAUX (S&D - LU) presented one compromise amendment (amendment 5) to the proposed Regulation, on behalf of the Committee on Legal Affairs. This amendment had been agreed during the informal contacts referred to above. One further amendment (amendment 6) was tabled which introduces a reference to gender balance in the legislative resolution.

II. VOTE

When it voted on 9 June 2016, the plenary adopted the compromise amendment [amendment 5] to the proposed Regulation and amendment 6 on the legislative resolution.

The Court's proposal as thus amended and the legislative resolution constitute the Parliament's first-reading position ², it reflects what had been previously agreed between the institutions. The Council should therefore be in a position to approve the Parliament's position.

The act would then be adopted in the wording which corresponds to the Parliament's position.

² The text of the amendment adopted and the European Parliament's legislative resolution are set out in the Annex. The amendment is presented in the form of a consolidated text, where changes to the Commission's proposal are highlighted in bold and italics. The symbol "■" indicates deleted text.
