Statement by Germany

"The Federal Republic of Germany supports the compromises on the political pillar of the Fourth Railway Package, which continue to make it possible for integrated systems to exist while at the same time providing for strong and effective regulation and transparency of the financial flows.

The Federal Republic of Germany considers it important to put on record that in Article 7d, the conditions for a control of the financial transfers for, for instance, dividend payments and loans are stipulated and that recital 48 does not open up any additional rules here.

Furthermore, the Federal Republic of Germany interprets Article 7d and recital 52 as meaning that it is possible for infrastructure managers to pay revenue and dividends directly or via another legal entity within the undertaking to the owner. The term "owner of the company" to whom the revenue referred to in Article 7d is to be forwarded is to be understood as meaning that not only the state as direct owner of the infrastructure company but also the state as ultimate owner is included."

38. Enlargement

- Accession negotiations with Serbia
 - = Chapter 23: Judiciary and fundamental rights

10074/16 ELARG 78

Statement by Croatia

"Croatia lifted its reserve on the draft EU Common Position for Chapter 23 in the interest of achieving compromise that will allow the accession process with Serbia to continue.

Croatia will remain vigilant in closely following the implementation of all interim benchmarks in Chapter 23, as well as other measures and obligations in the relevant negotiation chapters throughout the accession process, focusing on the areas that have been earlier identified as matters of special concern, notably: full cooperation with the ICTY, revision of the legislation that arbitrarily extended Serbia's jurisdiction for war crimes over the neighbouring States, and the need to revise Serbia's National Strategy for handling of war crimes in light of its unacceptable political and legal qualification, as well as the full implementation of the overall legal framework on minority rights, as derived from its domestic and international obligations, including all building blocks of its Action Plan for National Minorities. Non-discriminatory access to victims' rights, including reparations and compensations, is another important indicator of the efficient judiciary and, together with cooperation regarding the issue of missing persons, an essential element for lasting peace and reconciliation. Croatia is satisfied that the benchmarks as agreed encompass these important aspects of Serbia's obligations.

Resolving all outstanding legacies of war, while constructively engaging in regional cooperation and good neighbourly relations remains important part of the political criteria as well as the conditionality of the Stabilisation and Association Process, as reflected in Serbia's Negotiating Framework and the Stabilization and Association Agreement.

Croatia remains committed to the continuation of the enlargement of the EU, based on the fulfilment of all necessary criteria."

39. Enlargement
- Accession negotiations with Serbia
 - = Chapter 24: Justice, freedom and security
10075/16 ELARG 79

Statement by Croatia

"Croatia lifted its reserve on the draft EU Common Position for Chapter 24 in the interest of achieving compromise that will allow the accession process with Serbia to continue. Croatia is reiterating its position on judicial co-operation in criminal matters by emphasizing the importance of regional co-operation based on well-established norms and principles of international criminal law and avoiding the conflict of jurisdictions with neighbouring States in processing war crimes.

Croatia will remain vigilant in closely following the implementation all interim benchmarks in Chapters 24 and 23, as well as the progress in other relevant chapters throughout the negotiating process, focusing on areas that have been earlier identified as matters of special concern, including on co-operation in criminal matters, since the identified shortcomings continue to undermine the process of reconciliation, inclusive regional co-operation, States' cooperation in the prosecution of the international core crimes, as well as good neighbourly relations."
