Statement by Bulgaria

"Bulgaria underlines the importance of ensuring visa-free travel between the EU and Canada so that their citizens can equally benefit from the trade and economic opportunities provided by the Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement.

Bulgaria recalls the legal commitment of both parties to make every effort to achieve, as soon as possible, visa-free travel between their territories for all citizens with a valid passport, as provided in the Strategic Partnership Agreement between Canada and the EU and its Member States.

Bulgaria declares that the completion of its internal procedures, required for the Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement to enter into force under Art.30.7, par.2 of the Agreement, is dependent on the full lifting of visas for all Bulgarian citizens."

Statement by Romania

"Romania recalls the value of enhanced mobility, including through visa-free travel between the European Union and Canada for all of our respective citizens, as envisaged in the Canada-EU Strategic Partnership Agreement.

In this context, we reiterate the importance of full and swift implementation of the agreement reached with Canada regarding the lifting, on December 1, 2017, of visa requirements for all Romanian citizens which will further facilitate the strong cultural, educational, family and business relations that exist between Canada and Europe. The full and swift implementation of this agreement will further facilitate a smooth progress of the internal procedures required for the national ratification of both CETA and SPA."

Statement by the Commission on the achievement of full visa reciprocity with Canada for Romanian and Bulgarian citizens

"Visa waiver reciprocity is a principle of the European Union's common visa policy and an objective which the European Commission pursues in a proactive manner in its relations with third countries.

The significance of the situation of non-reciprocity between Canada and the European Union in the area of visa policy in the perspective of both the EU-Canada Strategic Partnership Agreement and the preparation of the signing and ratification of the EU-Canada Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement (CETA) has also been emphasised consistently by Bulgaria and Romania.

In the process leading to the conclusion of CETA, the European Commission will take all necessary steps to ensure that Canada confirms the full abolition of visa requirements for Romanian and Bulgarian citizens within a time-frame satisfactory to all sides, and at the latest by the end of 2017."

These statements and other delegations' statements made for the adoption of this item, can be found in 13463/1/16 REV 1.

68. Draft Council Decision on the signing, on behalf of the European Union, and provisional application of the Strategic Partnership Agreement between the European Union and its Member States, of the one part, and Canada, of the other part

The Committee approved the set of documents and the use of the written procedure for its adoption, with deadline on 28 October 2016, midnight.

Statement by Bulgaria

"Bulgaria underlines the importance of ensuring visa-free travel for all EU citizens as part of the new legal framework that is being created with the signing of the Strategic and Partnership Agreement.

Bulgaria recalls the shared objective of visa-free travel and the legal commitment of both parties to make every effort to achieve, as soon as possible, visa-free travel between their territories for all citizens with a valid passport, as enshrined in Art.23, par.2 of the Agreement. Bulgaria declares that the completion of its internal procedures, required for the Agreement to enter into force under Art. 30, par.1, is dependent on the full lifting of visas for all Bulgarian citizens."

Statement by Portugal

"Bearing in mind the compliance with the principle of competence sharing between the European Union and its Member States, as established by the Treaties, the Council Decision regarding the provisional application of the Protocol of Accession to the Trade Agreement between the European Union and its Member States, of the one part, and Colombia and Peru, of the other part, to take account of the Accession of Ecuador, shall not affect the autonomy of Portugal's decisions regarding issues within its national competence, whose international binding to Protocol of Accession, pursuant to its Constitutional principles and rules, depends on the conclusion of the internal ratification procedures and the entry into force of the Protocol of Accession in the international legal system."

Statement by Ireland

"Ireland recalls the statement made by the Council on 31 May 2012 at the occasion of the adoption by the Council of the decision authorising the signature and the provisional application of the Trade Agreement between the European Union and its Member States, of the one part, and Colombia and Peru, of the other part. The Council's statement noted that: 'Should the implementation of the agreement by the European Union necessitate a recourse to measures pursuant to Part III, Title V, of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, the provisions of the Protocol on the position of the United Kingdom and Ireland in respect of the area of freedom, security and justice, annexed to the Treaty on European Union and the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, will be fully respected.' Ireland notes that the Council statement applies also to the accession by Ecuador to the Agreement and notes further that the Commission has, by letter dated 13 October 2016, notified Ecuador of the terms of the Council statement."

Statement by Slovenia

"On the basis of the allocation of competences between the European Union and its Member States under the Treaties, the Decision of the Council that authorises the provisional application of the Protocol of Accession to the Agreement between the European Union and its Member States, of one part, and Columbia and Peru, of the other part, to take into account of the Accession of Ecuador, shall not affect the autonomy of the Republic of Slovenia to decide to be bound by it with regard to issues falling within its national competence. That implies inter alia that reference in the said Protocol to internal requirements and procedures necessary for its provisional application is to be understood in the case of Slovenia as referring to the completion of ratification procedures."

Statement by the United Kingdom

"The United Kingdom welcomes the signature and conclusion of the Protocol of Accession to the Trade Agreement between the European Union and its Member States, on the one part, and Columbia and Peru on the other, to take account of the Accession of Ecuador. The United Kingdom is still in the process of completing its considerations and relevant parliamentary scrutiny processes, in respect of its intention to take part in the application of the Council Decision in respect of certain provisions which are pursuant to Title V of Part III of the Treaty on the Functioning of the Union."
