NOTE

From:	The Services of the Commission

No. prev. doc.:	12066/15, 13308/15
Subject:	Special Commission on the Judgments Project, The Hague, 1 to 9 June 2016 - Preparation of the EU position to be taken at the Special Commission

As mandated by the Council on General Affairs and Policy of the Hague Conference on Private International Law on 17 March 2016, formal negotiations on the Judgments Project will start at the meeting of the Special Commission on 1-9 June 2016.

The draft text of the Convention is available at <https://assets.hcch.net/docs/06811e9c-dddf-4619-81af-71e8836c8d3e.pdf>. The Permanent Bureau of the Hague Conference is preparing an Explanatory Note on the draft text of the Convention, with the aim to assist the participants in the Special Commission. The Permanent Bureau also prepared an Aide Memoire of issues identified by the Working Group (which carried out the preparatory work) for future consideration. The Aide Memoire is annexed to this non-paper as Annex I.

The present paper aims at preparing the EU's participation in the Special Commission. It gives more details on the Judgments Project, also with the aim to give a more comprehensive picture on the negotiating mandate to be adopted by the EU Council in the run up to the June meeting. In particular, it points out certain issues raised in relation to the Articles of the draft Convention and gives some suggestions as to the position to be taken by the Union. The paper does not aim to be exhaustive at this stage; other aspects of the draft text of the Convention will certainly come up and will need to be discussed further.

When analysing the draft provisions it has to be recalled that, as indicated in the Report by the Working Group on its last meeting (October 2015), 'in view of the complementary nature of the future Convention and the Choice of Court Convention, the Working Group proceeded on the basis that the starting point for preparing proposals for inclusion in the future Convention should be the corresponding provisions of the Choice of Court Convention, and that there should be a material departure from corresponding provisions of the Choice of Court Convention only where the Group identified a justification for such a difference, having regard to the subject-matter of the proposed instrument.'
