Integrated Format - Civilian Response Teams. After a detailed reading of the paper, the Secretariat was requested to present a further revision of the text in order to meet the concerns of delegations. One delegation put a reserve on § 32 of the text concerning the possibility using incentives by the Member States in order to stimulate the interest among Member States officials to participate in CRTs. The revised version will be discussed in CivCom meeting of 20 June.

Document on Draft Civilian Option

Delegations decided that the document on Draft Focussed Civilian Option would be discussed during the CivCom meeting on Monday, 20 June. The delegations were encouraged to submit their comments in writing by Wednesday, 15 June. The Presidency and the Secretariat informed the Committee that the workshop on Capabilities Requirements List will be postponed until 11 July.

AOB

One of the delegations asked for information about the preliminary job description of the expert staff for Sudan.
