DIRECTIVE .../.../EU OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL

[...] amending Directives 2008/94/EC, 2009/38/EC, 2002/14/EC, 98/59/EC and 2001/23/EC as regards seafarers

(Text with EEA relevance)

THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in particular Article 153(2)(b) thereof, in conjunction with Article 153(1)(b) and (e),

Having regard to the proposal from the European Commission,

After transmission of the draft legislative act to the national parliaments,

Having regard to the opinion of the European Economic and Social Committee<sup>1</sup>,

Having regard to the opinion of the Committee of the Regions<sup>2</sup>,

Acting in accordance with the ordinary legislative procedure,

Whereas:

- (1) Under Article 153 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (TFEU), the European Parliament and the Council may, in accordance with the ordinary legislative procedure, adopt, by means of directives, minimum requirements for gradual implementation aiming at improving working conditions, and information and consultation of workers. Such directives must avoid imposing administrative, financial and legal constraints in a way that would hold back the creation and development of small and medium-sized undertakings.
- (2) Directive 2008/94/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council<sup>3</sup>, Directive 2009/38/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council<sup>4</sup>, Directive 2002/14/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council<sup>5</sup>, Council Directive 98/59/EC<sup>6</sup> and Council Directive 2001/23/EC<sup>7</sup>, either exclude certain seagoing workers from their scope or allow the Member States to exclude them.
- (3) [...]<sup>8</sup>

<sup>3</sup> Directive 2008/94/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 22 October 2008 on the protection of employees in the event of the insolvency of their employer (OJ L 283, 28.10.2008, p. 36).

<sup>4</sup> Directive 2009/38/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 6 May 2009 on the establishment of a European Works Council or a procedure in Community-scale undertakings and Community-scale groups of undertakings for the purposes of informing and consulting employees (OJ L 122, 16.5.2009, p. 28).

<sup>5</sup> Directive 2002/14/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 11 March 2002 establishing a general framework for informing and consulting employees in the European Community (OJ L 80, 23.3.2002, p. 29).

<sup>6</sup> Council Directive 98/59/EC of 20 July 1998 on the approximation of the laws of the Member States relating to collective redundancies (OJ L 225, 12.8.1998, p. 16).

<sup>7</sup> Council Directive 2001/23/EC of 12 March 2001 on the approximation of the laws of the Member States relating to the safeguarding of employees' rights in the event of transfers of undertakings, businesses or parts of undertakings or businesses (OJ L 82, 22.3.2001, p. 16).

<sup>8</sup> Moved to recital 4.

- (4) <sup>9</sup> The existence and/or possibility of introducing exclusions may prevent or limit the possibility for seagoing workers to fully enjoy the right to information and consultation and the right to fair and just working conditions. Therefore, insofar those exclusions are not justified on objective grounds, they should be suppressed.
- (5) The present legal situation gives rise to unequal treatment of the same category of workers by different Member States, according to whether they apply or not the exemptions and exclusions allowed by legislation in force. An important number of the Member States have made limited use of the optional exclusions.
- (6) In its communication of 10 October 2007 entitled “An Integrated Maritime Policy for the European Union” the Commission outlined that that policy is based on the clear recognition that all matters relating to Europe’s oceans and seas are interlinked, and that sea-related policies must develop in a joined-up way if they are to reap the desired results. It also stressed the need for an increase in the number and quality of maritime jobs for European citizens and the importance of improving working conditions on board.
- (7) [...] <sup>10</sup>
- (8) In accordance with Article 154(2) TFEU, the Commission has consulted the social partners at the European level on the possible direction of Union action in this field.
- (8a) Considering the special nature of the maritime sector and the particular working conditions of the workers affected by the exclusions suppressed by this Directive, it is necessary to adapt some of the provisions of the amended Directives to reflect the specificities of the sector concerned.
- (9) Having regard to the technological developments of recent years, notably as regards communications technology, the information and consultation requirements should be updated and applied in the most appropriate manner, including remotely via electronic means of communication.

- (10) The rights of seafarers covered by this Directive afforded by the Member States in the national legislation implementing Directives 2008/94/EC, 2009/38/EC, 2002/14/EC, 98/59/EC and/or 2001/23/EC should not be affected. The implementation of this Directive should not serve to justify any regression in relation to the situation which already prevails in each Member State.
- (11) [...]
- (12) [...] <sup>11</sup>
- (13) Since the objective of this Directive, namely the improvement of working conditions of seafarers and their information and consultation, cannot be sufficiently achieved by the Member States but can rather, by reason of the scale and effects of the action, be better achieved at Union level, the Union may adopt measures, in accordance with the principle of subsidiarity as set out in Article 5 of the Treaty on European Union. In accordance with the principle of proportionality, as set out in that Article, this Directive does not go beyond what is necessary in order to achieve that objective.
- (14) This Directive respects the fundamental rights and observes the principles recognised in the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union, notably the right to information and consultation within the undertaking and the right to fair and just working conditions. This Directive should be implemented in accordance with those rights and principles <sup>12</sup>.
- (15) Directives 98/59/EC, 2001/23/EC, 2002/14/EC, 2008/94/EC and 2009/38/EC should therefore be amended accordingly,

HAVE ADOPTED THIS DIRECTIVE:

<sup>11</sup> Partly moved to recital 15.

<sup>12</sup> Moved here from recital 4.

Article 1

Amendment to Directive 2008/94/EC
