25. Presidency priorities

- Presentation by the Presidency

The Presidency presented its priorities and working methods. The Presidency will focus on a Competitive, Digital and Engaged Europe. Due to the recent events in France high importance will be given to the fight against terrorism.

26. Fight against terrorism

- Information from the International Ministerial meeting on 11 January 2015 in Paris

In the aftermath of the tragic events in Paris, the Committee held an in-depth discussion on the implications of the events and the measures to be taken.

Following the introductory intervention by the Director of IntCen who gave an update on the threat and its implications, France presented the outcome of the discussion of the Ministerial meeting in Paris on 11 January 2015 and identified seven areas of action where further progress was needed and which should be implemented as a matter of priority. These include reinforcement of controls at external borders of the Schengen area including systematic controls of EU citizens, EU PNR, improvement of information exchange and risk analysis, intensification of cooperation on firearms trafficking, enhancing cooperation with Internet providers with discussion on identification and removal of illegal content, preventing radicalisation and addressing the issue with all countries concerned.

In the discussion which followed, delegations expressed broad support for the areas for action as identified by France and called for their accelerated implementation with real commitment, building on the progress which was already achieved. Coherence between internal and external action should be ensured.
