3. The Working Party on Customs Union examined the proposal at various meetings during the Greek and Italian Presidencies, and at its meeting on 9 September 2014 reached a large agreement on the Presidency compromise text as laid down in doc. 13179/14, with AT and DE voting against and ES abstaining.
4. On 23 September 2014, the Permanent Representatives Committee confirmed the agreement reached within the Working Party and granted a mandate for initiating trilogue meetings with the European Parliament.
5. A number technical meetings and two trilogue meetings took place between the European Parliament, the Commission and the Italian Presidency, paving the way for a conclusive third trilogue meeting on 18 December 2014². The compromise reached on that occasion was endorsed by the Permanent Representatives Committee.
6. Subsequently, on 23 March 2015, the Chair of the Committee on the Internal market and Consumer Protection sent a letter to the President of Coreper stating that the European Parliament would approve the Council's position without amendments at its second reading.
7. In view of the above, the Permanent Representatives Committee could therefore invite the Council to, as an item without discussion:
 - approve the political agreement as set out in doc. 7565/15, and
 - agree that the political agreement will be subject to legal-linguists' revision before the formal adoption by the Council of its position at first reading.

² A number of outstanding technical issues were subsequently addressed in January 2015 by the Latvian Presidency.
