"The Customs 2020 program lays down the rules for financing activities in the field of customs cooperation in the EU. All activities under the program, including the creation of expert teams, are determined in annual work plans on the basis of Article 14.

Expert teams are a new instrument, which potentially touches upon the balance of powers between Member states and the Union's institutions as foreseen in the treaties. In view of the possible major implications of the expert teams for operational activities and competences of customs authorities in the Member states, The Netherlands would have preferred a separate implementing act for the creation and for the rules on the functioning of each expert team, enabling a more transparent decision process at the appropriate level.

Taken this into account,

The Netherlands will whenever the creation of an expert team is being proposed in the work plan insist on a thorough evaluation of the proposed scope of the team, clear rules on the functioning of the team, a detailed business case and an in-depth legal analysis on the basis of the EU treaties, in particular regarding the respective competences of Member States and Union's institutions."

"The above mentioned Member states take note of this information note from the European Commission aiming at preparing to prepare the 40th meeting of Eurocontrol Provisional Council on the 3rd and 4th of December 2013.

They consider that the issues tackled have not been sufficiently discussed in the relevant working group.

While they deeply regret this situation, they nevertheless recognise the usefulness of this process of coordination including a recommended EU common position as well as an on-site preparatory meeting.

However, they underline that this process is without prejudice to the competence of Member States nor to their right to speak and vote on the occasion of the above mentioned meeting in order to promote their interests in fields of their competence."

" In the light of the recent and future judgments in the cases on the 2011 and 2012 adjustments of salaries and pensions of EU staff and the case on the 2011 adjustment of the rate of contribution to the pension scheme of officials and other servants of the European Union, it may be necessary to take measures pursuant to Article 266 TFEU to implement these judgments. Adjustment of salaries or, for 2011, of the rate of contribution, may entail recalculation of the rate of contribution to the pension scheme of officials and other servants of the Union for 2012 and 2013. The Commission in such cases will do its utmost to ensure that the applied pension contribution rate maintains the pension scheme in actuarial balance. In particular, for this purpose the Commission will submit to the Council all proposals necessary to enable it to adjust the rates of contribution for the years 2012 and 2013 to the requisite level for respecting the actuarial balance."

"Germany will abstain from the vote on the Council decisions on the signing and the conclusion of the PNR Agreement with Canada.

Furthermore we believe that pursuant to Article 218 (4) of the TFEU and Article 2 of the negotiating mandate (doc. 16085/1/10 REV 1), the Special Committee designated by the Council was insufficiently involved in the negotiations, and that this should not become a model for future negotiations with third countries on agreements in the field of Justice and Home Affairs. Pursuant to Article 218 (4) of the TFEU negotiations must be conducted "in consultation with" the Special Committee designated by the Council. For this reason Article 2 of the negotiating mandate for the Commission specified that the Commission should forward "all negotiating documents without delay to this Special Committee". However, the Special Committee did not receive the first draft agreement until more than two years after the start of negotiations, with the Commission's note that there would be no room for further improvements."

"The Netherlands, the United Kingdom and Austria have assessed the Proposal for a Council Decision on the conclusion of the Protocol Amending the Agreement on Government Procurement and the Proposal establishing the position to be taken by the European Union within the Committee on Government Procurement with respect to decisions implementing certain provisions of the Protocol Amending the Agreement on Government Procurement.

Although the Netherlands, the United Kingdom and Austria can endorse the proposal for a Council Decision on the conclusion of a Protocol Amending the Government Procurement Agreement, they are of the opinion that the current thresholds in Special Drawing Rights (SDR) should be substantially raised. The Netherlands, the United Kingdom and Austria therefore underline that specific attention should be paid to the raising of the thresholds in the context of future negotiations, which according to the Protocol of the GPA will commence not later than the end of the third year from the date of entry into force of the Agreement.

The current thresholds have nominally been reduced over the years despite effects of inflation and economic growth in general during this period. At the same time, the costs of participating in a public procurement process are significant, which hinders access to public procurement markets especially for small and medium size enterprises. In order to create a better balance between costs and benefits, especially for public contracts for supplies and services with a value only slightly above the relevant threshold, the current thresholds in SDR for supplies and services should be reconsidered."

- 30. Amended proposal for a Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council on the European Maritime and Fisheries Fund [repealing Council Regulation (EC) No 1198/2006 and Council Regulation (EC) No 861/2006 and Council Regulation No XXX/2011 on integrated maritime policy] (First reading) (Legislative deliberation)
– Presidency debriefing on the outcome of the informal trilogue

The Presidency debriefed on the third informal trilogue held on 26 November 2013.

The Commission representative called on Council to reflect particularly on three issues when a revision of the mandate will come forward:

- a) The EMFF Regulation should not define what are serious infringements of EU environmental law;
- b) support for aquaculture stock insurance needs to be very limited, otherwise it would amount to being support to operational costs;
- c) support to the processing industry should also be limited, as this can be capital-intensive and has recourse to the regional fund.

The Presidency concluded that a detailed debriefing will be given at the Working Group on internal Fisheries Policy and that the Committee will consider outstanding political issues relating to the mandate at a future meeting.

- 31. Setting of the provisional agenda for the Council meeting (Agriculture and Fisheries) on 16 and 17 December 2013
(For the items in the remit of the Permanent Representative Committee)

The Committee prepared the provisional agenda for the items in its remit.

- 32. Request for an Advisory Opinion to the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea (Case 21)
– Endorsement of the submission on behalf of the European Union to the Tribunal
– Decision to use the written procedure
16769/13 PECHE 562 COMAR 33
15247/1/13 PECHE 476 COMAR 30 REV 1

The Committee considered the question of the possible submission of observations to the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea (ITLOS) on the request for an Advisory Opinion from the Sub-regional Fisheries Commission (SRFC).

Delegations and the Presidency insisted that it is for the Council, in accordance with its policy-making functions under Article 16 TEU, to decide whether the Union should submit observations and, if so, to endorse their content. They disagreed with the Commission that Article 335 TFEU would allow the Commission to submit observations to the Tribunal on behalf of the Union without such prior endorsement by the Council.

The Committee noted that, insofar as the Council could not endorse any position regarding a possible submission to ITLOS on behalf of the European Union,

- no European Union position existed in this regards; and, therefore,
- no observations could be submitted to ITLOS on behalf of the European Union on the request for an Advisory Opinion from SRFC.

The Commission made the following statement :

"In connection with the request to the International Tribunal for the Law of the Seas (ITLOS) on the advisory opinion request in case 21, concerning illegal, unreported and unregulated (IUU) fisheries, the Commission takes note of the fact that the Council "noted that, insofar as the Council could not endorse any position regarding a possible submission to ITLOS on behalf of the European Union, no European Union position existed in this regards" and that, "therefore, no observations could be submitted to ITLOS on behalf of the European Union".

The Commission would like to underline that, as the case concerns an issue of Union competence, under Art. 335 TFEU it is for the Commission to express itself on behalf of the Union in legal proceedings, without requiring the prior approval by the Council, and that it closely cooperated with the Council on the main content of the intended submission.

The Commission still believes that it would have been preferable to have only one single submission on all aspects of the case, including the question of jurisdiction. However, considering that at this stage of the advisory opinion procedure it is not indispensable to make elaborate statements in the written submission on jurisdiction, in its initial written submission the Commission limits itself to a "without prejudice" statement (along the lines of "This submission is without prejudice to the question of the jurisdiction of the Tribunal to examine the request for an advisory opinion in respect of the questions raised before it."), and addresses the admissibility questions (as appropriate), as well as the substance, in more detail.

It should be stressed that this approach is without prejudice to the position the Commission will adopt in future cases.

The Commission finally recalls that Member States should in any case not make any submissions on the substance of the questions, because that would obviously affect the exclusive competence of the Union."

"In a spirit of compromise, and in order to facilitate consensus on the Joint Declaration to be signed at the Eastern Partnership Summit (Vilnius, 28-29 November 2013), Spain has accepted not to block an agreement on the language of the Declaration that refers to the Common Aviation Area Agreement between the European Union and its Member States and Ukraine that the Commission intends to initialize with Ukraine on the margins of the Summit.

Nevertheless, Spain formally declares that it cannot accept the wording of Definition (27) "Territory" as it presently stands in the text of the Common Aviation Area Agreement between the European Union and its Member States and Ukraine, and will therefore refuse to sign or ratify the Agreement until such wording is modified in line with an agreement to be reached between Spain and the United Kingdom on the matter."
