Section 33

- (a) Where the incidence of any form of taxation depends upon residence, periods during which the persons designated in Section 32 may be present in Austria for the discharge of their duties shall not be considered as periods of residence. In particular, such persons shall be exempt from taxation on their salaries and emoluments received in connection with their service with the OSCE during such periods of duty and shall be exempt from all tourist taxes.

- (b) Except as otherwise provided, persons designated in Section 32 who are Austrian nationals or stateless persons resident in Austria, shall enjoy only those privileges and immunities listed in Section 32 sub-sections (a), (b), (c), (d), (g) and (i), it being understood, nevertheless, that such privileges and immunities include exemption from taxation on benefits paid to them by a Provident Fund.

Section 34

- (a) The Secretary General shall communicate to the Government a list of persons within the scope of this article and shall revise such list from time to time as may be necessary.
- (b) The Government shall furnish the OSCE for each person within the scope of this article with an identity card bearing the photograph of the holder. This card shall serve to identify the holder in relation to all Austrian authorities.

Article XVII

Section 35

- (a) Aircraft performing aerial observation flights within the framework of the Treaty on Open Skies shall enjoy the same immunity from search, requisition, attachment or execution as is accorded to diplomatic missions in accordance with Article 22 paragraph 3 of the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations. The personnel of these aircraft shall enjoy, while passing through Austria, the same privileges and immunities as are accorded to diplomats in accordance with Article 40 paragraph 1 of the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations.
- (b) Delegations of Participating States to meetings in the framework of the Treaty on Open Skies in Vienna shall enjoy the same privileges and immunities as are accorded to diplomatic missions in Austria.

Article XVIII Settlement of Disputes

Section 36

The OSCE shall make provision for appropriate methods of settlement of:

- (a) Disputes arising out of contracts and disputes of a private law character to which the OSCE is a party; and
- (b) Disputes involving an official or expert on mission for the OSCE who, by reason of his or her official position, enjoys immunity, if such immunity has not been waived.

Section 37

Unless the Parties decide otherwise, any dispute concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement which cannot be settled by negotiation shall be submitted to arbitration by a tribunal composed of a single arbitrator appointed by the Secretary General of the Permanent Court of Arbitration in accordance with the relevant Optional Rules for Arbitration involving international organizations and States. Such arbitration shall be final and binding. Each Party may however request the Secretary General of the Permanent Court of Arbitration to immediately appoint such an arbitrator to examine a request for provisional measures to protect its rights under this Agreement. The place of arbitration shall be Vienna and the language to be used in the proceedings of the tribunal shall be English.

Article XIX General Provisions

Section 38

The Republic of Austria shall not incur by reason of the location of the Headquarters of the OSCE within its territory any international responsibility for acts or omissions of the OSCE or of its officials acting or abstaining from acting within the scope of their functions, other than the international responsibility which the Republic of Austria would incur as a Participating State of the OSCE.

Section 39

- (a) Without prejudice to the privileges and immunities accorded by this Agreement, it is the duty of all persons enjoying such privileges and immunities to respect the laws and regulations of the Republic of Austria, and not to interfere in the internal affairs of this State.
- (b) Privileges and Immunities under this Agreement are accorded not for the personal benefit of the individuals themselves, but in the interests of the OSCE, namely in order to safeguard the independent exercise of their functions in connection with the OSCE. Consequently, there is not only the right but a duty to waive immunity in any case where, in the opinion of the authority competent to waive, the immunity would impede the course of justice, and it can be waived without prejudice to the purpose for which the immunity is accorded. Any waiver must be express.

Section 40

- (a) The Secretary General shall take every precaution to ensure that no abuse of a privilege or immunity conferred by this Agreement shall occur, and for this purpose shall establish such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary and expedient, for Officials of the OSCE and for such other persons as may be appropriate.
- (b) Should the Government consider that an abuse of a privilege or immunity conferred by this Agreement has occurred, the Secretary General shall, upon request, consult with the competent Austrian authorities to determine whether any such abuse has occurred. If such consultations fail to achieve a result satisfactory to the Secretary General and to the Government, the matter shall be determined in accordance with the procedure set out in Section 37.

Section 41

This Agreement shall apply whether or not the Government maintains diplomatic relations with the State or organization concerned and irrespective of whether the State concerned grants the same privileges or immunities to diplomatic envoys or nationals of the Republic of Austria.

Section 42

This Agreement shall be construed in the light of its primary purpose of enabling the OSCE at its Headquarters in Austria to fully and efficiently discharge its responsibilities and fulfill its roles and mandates.

Section 43

Consultations with respect to modification of this Agreement shall be entered into at the request of the Government or of the OSCE. Any such modification shall be by mutual consent expressed in an agreement between the Republic of Austria and the OSCE.

Section 44

- (a) The Government and the OSCE may enter into such supplemental agreements as may be necessary.
- (b) If and to the extent that the Government shall enter into any agreement with any intergovernmental organization containing terms or conditions more favourable to that organization than similar terms or conditions of this Agreement, the Government shall extend such more favourable terms or conditions to the OSCE, by means of a supplemental agreement.

Section 45

This Agreement shall cease to be in force:

- (a) By mutual consent of the Republic of Austria and the OSCE; or
- (b) If the Headquarters of the OSCE are removed from the territory of the Republic of Austria, except for such provisions as may be applicable in connection with the orderly termination of the operations of the OSCE at its headquarters in Austria and the disposal of its property therein.

Section 46

- (a) This Agreement shall enter into force on the first day of the month following the day the Government has notified the Secretary General that the necessary constitutional conditions for its entry into force have been fulfilled.
- (b) With the entry into force of this Agreement, the Federal Law on the Legal Status of OSCE Institutions in Austria, Federal Law Gazette No. 511/1997 as amended, shall cease to be in force.

ANNEX

Access to the labour market

1. Spouses of Officials of the OSCE and their children under the age of 21, provided they came to Austria for the purpose of family reunion and forming part of the same household with the principal holder of the identity card issued according to Section 31, shall have preferential access to the labour market. The definition of "Official of the OSCE" according to Section 1 sub-section (g) takes account of the specific structure of the OSCE. The above mentioned family members are hereinafter called beneficiaries.

2. Upon application, the above mentioned beneficiaries will be issued, by the Federal Ministry competent for foreign affairs, a certificate confirming their preferential status under this Agreement. The issuing of such certificate shall not be conditional on a specific offer of employment. It shall be valid for the entire territory of the Republic of Austria and its validity shall expire upon expiration of the identity card.

3. The prospective employer of the beneficiary will be granted an employment permit (Beschäftigungsbewilligung) upon application, provided that the employment is not sought in a sector of the labour market or a region with grave employment problems, as determined by the Austrian Public Employment Service (Arbeitsmarktservice). The employment permit may be granted even if the legally fixed maximum number for employment of foreign labour (Bundeshöchstzahl) has been exceeded.

4. The employment permit shall be issued by the regional office of the Austrian Public Employment Service (Arbeitsmarktservice) competent for the area in which employment is taken up; in the case of employment which is not confined to a specific location, the competence of the regional office shall be determined by the business seat of the employer.

5. Children who came to Austria before the age of 21 for the purpose of family reunion and who wish to take up employment after the completion of their 21st year of age shall be considered as beneficiaries if the principal holder of the identity card provided for their livelihood before they reached the age of 21 up to the moment in which they took up employment. For all other dependent relatives the normal regulations for access of foreigners to employment in Austria shall apply.

6. The above rules concerning employment shall not apply to self-employed activities. In such cases, the beneficiaries shall comply with the necessary legal requirements for the exercise of such business activities.
