ITEMS DEBATEDBrexit negotiations: state of play

The Council (Article 50), in EU27 format, was briefed by the EU's chief Brexit negotiator Michel Barnier on the state of play in the Brexit negotiations. The chief negotiator informed the ministers about where the negotiations stand regarding the work on withdrawal issues to finalise the draft withdrawal agreement, including the backstop solution for the border between Ireland and Northern Ireland, as well as about the discussions on future EU-UK relations.

Ministers confirmed the importance of the strong unity of the 27 and insisted on the need to deploy all efforts so that the withdrawal agreement can be concluded as soon as possible, with an operative legal solution to avoid a hard border on the island of Ireland.

Regarding future relations, ministers underlined that work must also be accelerated with a view to preparing a political declaration on the framework for the future relationship. The Council discussed how the policy paper published by the UK government on 12 July 2018 can feed into the discussions. In the light of the principles set out by the European Council, the negotiator will explore common ground between the EU and UK positions regarding the framework for future relations. The aim is to agree on a joint political declaration that will accompany the withdrawal agreement and be referred to in it.

The chief negotiator also presented to the ministers the recent Commission communication on preparedness. Ministers reiterated that the work on preparedness must be stepped up at all levels for the EU27 to be ready for any possible outcome, including a no-deal scenario.
