Amendment 1

Proposal for a directive Recital 1 a (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(1a) In that White Paper, the Commission set a deadline for 2020 to "proceed to the full and mandatory internalisation of external costs (including noise, local pollution and congestion on top of the mandatory recovery of wear and tear costs) for road and rail transport".

Amendment 2

Proposal for a directive Recital 1 b (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(1b) The movement of goods and passenger vehicles is a factor that contributes to the release of pollutants into the atmosphere. Such pollutants, which have a very serious impact on people's health and lead to the deterioration of ambient air quality in the Union, include PM_{2,5}, NO₂, and O₃. In 2014, those three pollutants caused 399 000, 75 000, and 13 600 premature deaths in the Union owing to prolonged exposure, respectively, according to European Environment Agency estimates produced in 2017.

Amendment 3

Proposal for a directive Recital 1 c (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(1c) According to the World Health Organization, noise from road traffic alone ranks second among the most harmful environmental stressors in Europe, exceeded only by air pollution. At least 9 000 premature deaths a year can be attributed to heart disease caused by traffic noise.

Amendment 4

Proposal for a directive Recital 1 d (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(1d) According to the European Environment Agency's 2017 report on air quality in Europe, road transport, in 2015, was the sector with the highest NOx emissions and the second largest emitter of black carbon pollution.

Amendment 5

Proposal for a directive Recital 3

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(3) All heavy duty vehicles have significant impact on road infrastructure and contribute to air pollution, while light duty vehicles are at the source of the majority of the negative environmental and social impacts from road transport related to emissions and congestion. In the interest of equal treatment and fair competition, it should be ensured that vehicles so far not covered by the framework set out in Directive 1999/62/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council¹⁵ in respect of tolls and user charges are included into this framework. The scope of that Directive should therefore be extended to heavy duty vehicles other than those intended for the carriage of goods and to light duty vehicles, including passenger cars.

(3) All vehicles have significant impact on road infrastructure and contribute to air pollution, and light vehicles are at the source of the majority of the negative environmental and social impacts from road transport related to emissions and congestion. In the interest of equal treatment and fair competition, it should be ensured that vehicles so far not covered by the framework set out in Directive 1999/62/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council in respect of tolls and user charges are included into this framework. The scope of that Directive should therefore be extended to heavy duty vehicles other than those intended for the carriage of goods and to light duty vehicles and passenger cars. Charges for passenger cars could be adjusted so as to avoid excessive penalisation of frequent users. In the interest of equal treatment, charges should also be applied in a non-discriminatory manner, on the basis of category of vehicle, and differently, depending on vehicle impact on infrastructures and on the environment and society, and on the socioeconomic circumstances of certain users with no other choice but to go by road to their place of employment.

Amendment 6

Proposal for a directive Recital 3 a (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(3a) To establish an internal market in road transport with a level playing field, rules should be applied uniformly. One of the main aims of this Directive is to eliminate distortions of competition between users. Accordingly, vans carrying goods by road ought to be included in the scope of charges applied to heavy duty vehicles.

Amendment 7

Proposal for a directive Recital 3 b (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(3b) In order to guarantee that such a measure is proportionate, it is important to target only vans used to carry goods by road that are regulated by Regulations (EU) No 1071/2009^{1a} and 1072/2009^{1b} of the European Parliament and of the Council and by Regulation (EU) No 165/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council^{1c}.

^{1a} Regulation (EC) No 1071/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 21 October 2009 establishing common rules concerning the conditions to be complied with to pursue the occupation of road transport operator and repealing Council Directive 96/26/EC (OJ L 300, 14.11.2009, p. 51).

^{1b} Regulation (EC) No 1072/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 21 October 2009 on common rules for access to the international road haulage market (OJ L 300, 14.11.2009, p. 72).

^{1c} Regulation (EU) No 165/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 4 February 2014 on tachographs in road transport, repealing Council Regulation (EEC) No 3821/85 on recording equipment in road transport and amending Regulation (EC) No 561/2006 of the European Parliament and of the Council on the harmonisation of certain social legislation relating to road transport (OJ L 60, 28.2.2014, p. 1).

Amendment 8

Proposal for a directive Recital 4

Text proposed by the Commission

(4) Time-based user charges do by nature not accurately reflect infrastructure costs actually induced and, for similar reasons, are not effective when it comes to incentivising cleaner and more efficient operations, or reducing congestion. They should therefore be gradually replaced by distance-based charges, which are fairer, more efficient and more effective.

Amendment

(4) Time-based user charges do by nature not accurately reflect infrastructure costs actually induced and, for similar reasons, are not effective when it comes to incentivising cleaner and more efficient operations, or reducing congestion. For heavy vehicles, time-based user charges should therefore be gradually replaced by distance-based charges, which are fairer, more efficient and more effective.

Amendment 10

Proposal for a directive Recital 4 a (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(4a) In order to ensure that this gradual replacement of time-based charges with distance-based charges does not become a further obstacle to access to the main European markets for transport from peripheral countries and regions, a compensation system should be put in place as soon as possible in order to counterbalance the added costs and thereby ensure that it does not represent a significant loss of competitiveness.

Amendment 11

Proposal for a directive Recital 4 b (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(4b) In order to prevent traffic from switching to toll-free roads, which may have a serious impact on road safety and the optimum use of the road network, Member States must be able to levy tolls on all roads which are in direct competition with the trans-European networks.

Amendment 12

Proposal for a directive Recital 4 c (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(4c) Time-based user charges encourage drivers to travel more when their vignette is valid, thus making them misapply the ‘polluter pays’ principle and the ‘user pays’ principle.

Amendment 13

Proposal for a directive Recital 4 d (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(4d) To ensure that this Directive is properly applied, the contractual frameworks governing concession contracts for road charge collection should make it easier, with due regard for Directive 2014/23/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council, to bring those contracts into line with changes in the Union's regulatory framework.

Amendment 14

Proposal for a directive Recital 4 e (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(4e) In this connection, consideration should be given to the possibility of offsetting the added costs arising from remoteness by means of facilities as regards access to more energy-efficient fleets and the priority provision of exclusive infrastructure or technologies such as e-highways. Those compensating facilities could form part of the future CEF post-2020.

Amendment 15

Proposal for a directive Recital 5

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(5) In order to secure user acceptance of future road charging schemes, Member States should be allowed to introduce adequate systems for the collection of charges as part of a wider package of mobility services. Such systems should ensure a fair distribution of infrastructure costs and reflect the 'polluter pays' principle. Any Member States introducing such a system should ensure that it complies with the provisions of Directive 2004/52/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council.

(5) In order to secure user acceptance of future road charging schemes, Member States should be allowed to introduce adequate systems for the collection of charges as part of a wider package of mobility services. Such systems should ensure a fair distribution of infrastructure costs and reflect the 'polluter pays' principle and incorporate arrangements for ring-fencing the receipts from the user charges. In that connection, Member States should also be free to levy tolls on roads which do not form part of the main transport network. Any Member States introducing such a system should ensure that it complies with the provisions of Directive 2004/52/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council

Proposal for a directive Recital 5 a (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(5a) Member States should be encouraged to take into account socioeconomic factors when applying road infrastructure charging schemes for passenger cars.

Amendment 17

Proposal for a directive Recital 5 b (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(5b) The levying of charges on all road users by electronic means involves the mass collection and storage of personal data, which can also be used to draw up comprehensive movement profiles. The Member States and the Commission should systematically take account of the principles of purpose limitation and data minimisation when implementing this Directive. Technical solutions for the collection of data in connection with the levying of road-use charges should therefore incorporate anonymised, encrypted or advance payment options.

Amendment 18

Proposal for a directive Recital 5 c (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(5c) Vehicle taxes might act as an obstacle to the introduction of tolls. To provide backing for the introduction of tolls, Member States should have greater leeway to lower vehicle taxes quickly, meaning a reduction, as soon as possible, of the minimum rates set out in Directive 1999/62/EC.

Amendment 20

Proposal for a directive Recital 5 d (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(5d) It is of particular importance that the Member States establish a fair charging system which does not penalise users of private vehicles which, due to their place of residence in the countryside or in areas that are difficult of access or isolated, are forced to make more regular use of roads subject to charging. Under territorial development policy, Member States should levy reduced charges on users from such areas.

Amendment 21

Proposal for a directive Recital 6

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(6) As in respect of heavy duty vehicles, it is important to ensure that any time-based charges applied to light duty vehicles are proportionate, including in respect of periods of use shorter than one year. In that regard, account needs to be taken of the fact that light duty vehicles have a use pattern differing from the use pattern of heavy duty vehicles. The calculation of proportionate time-based charges could be based on available data on trip patterns.

(6) As in respect of heavy duty vehicles, it is important to ensure that, if Member States introduce any time-based charges applied to light duty vehicles, they are proportionate, including in respect of periods of use shorter than one year. In that regard, account needs to be taken of the fact that light duty vehicles have a use pattern differing from the use pattern of heavy duty vehicles. The calculation of proportionate time-based charges could be based on available data on trip patterns, provided that it ensures non-discrimination.

That method has proven to be the fairest and most efficient way to take account of negative environmental and health impacts of air pollution and noise generated by heavy duty vehicles, and would ensure a fair contribution from heavy duty vehicles to meeting EU air quality standards¹⁷ and any applicable noise limits or targets. The application of such charges should therefore be facilitated.

Amendment 23

Proposal for a directive Recital 8

Text proposed by the Commission

(8) To this effect, the maximum weighted average external-cost charges should be replaced by readily applicable reference values updated in light of inflation, the scientific progress made in estimating the external costs of road transport and the evolution of the fleet composition.

(8) To this effect, the possibility of applying an external-cost charge on networks not covered by an infrastructure charge should be introduced and the maximum weighted average external-cost charges should be replaced by readily applicable minimum values updated in light of inflation, the scientific progress made in estimating the external costs of road transport and the evolution of the fleet composition.

Amendment 24

Proposal for a directive Recital 8 a (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(8a) To help realise the transport White Paper objective of moving towards full application of the ‘polluter pays’ principle, it should be ensured that, on networks covered by an infrastructure charge, an external-cost charge is applied for heavy duty vehicles and vans carrying goods by road.

Amendment 25

Proposal for a directive
Recital 8 b (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(8b) In order to ensure an appropriate re-use of revenues from external-cost charges, it would be appropriate for those revenues to be reinvested in the transport infrastructure sector in order to promote more sustainable modes of transport with a lower environmental impact.

Amendment 27

Amendment

(9) The variation of infrastructure charges according to Euro emission class has contributed to the use of cleaner vehicles. However, with the renewal of vehicle fleets, the variation of charges on this basis on the inter-urban network is expected to become obsolete by the end of 2020 and should therefore be phased out by that time. From the same point in time, external-cost charging should be applied more systematically, as a targeted means to recover external cost in respect of situations in which it matters most.

However, with the renewal of vehicle fleets, the variation of charges on this basis on the inter-urban network is expected to become less effective by the end of 2020 and should therefore be phased out by that time. Proposal for a directive Recital 12 a (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(12a) Trans-Alpine transit represents a particular problem for the regions affected, in the form of noise and air pollution and wear and tear on infrastructure, which is exacerbated by cost competition with nearby corridors. The regions affected and the Member States must therefore be afforded a broad measure of flexibility when it comes to the charging of external costs and the implementation of traffic-management measures, not least with a view to preventing unwanted displacement effects and the diversion of traffic between corridors.

Amendment 30

Proposal for a directive Recital 13

(13) Road congestion, to which all motor vehicles contribute in different proportions, represents a cost of about 1% of GDP. A significant part of this cost can be attributed to interurban congestion. A specific congestion charge should therefore be allowed, on condition that it is applied to all vehicle categories. In order to be effective and proportionate, the charge should be calculated on the basis of the marginal congestion cost and differentiated according to location, time and vehicle category. Amendment

(13a) To help safeguard the Union's automobile heritage, Member States should place vehicles of historical interest in a special category for the purposes of adjusting the various charges payable under this Directive.

Amendment 32

Proposal for a directive Recital 15 a (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(15a) In view of the high external costs of accidents, which amount to tens of billions of euros a year, Member States should be given the possibility, in connection with the provisions on the average social cost of fatal and serious accidents under Directive 2008/96/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council^{1a}, of better internalising costs not covered by insurance arrangements. A proportion of those costs would be met by the relevant social security scheme or by society as a whole, such as the administrative costs of public services drawn on, certain costs of medical services drawn on, and human capital losses and the cost of physical and psychological harm.

^{1a} Directive 2008/96/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 19 November 2008 on road infrastructure safety management (OJ L 319, 29.11.2008, p. 59).

(16) Mark-ups added to the infrastructure charge could also provide a useful contribution to addressing problems related to significant environmental damage or congestion caused by the use of certain roads, not only within mountainous areas. The current restriction of mark-ups to such areas should therefore be removed. In order to avoid double charging of users, mark-ups should be excluded on road sections on which a congestion charge is applied.

Amendment

(16) Mark-ups added to the infrastructure charge could also provide a useful contribution to addressing problems related to significant environmental damage or congestion caused by the use of certain roads, not only within mountainous areas. Mark-ups should therefore be facilitated by removing the current restrictions limiting them to such areas, as should the allocation thereof to projects within the core network of the trans-European transport network. In order to avoid double charging of users, mark-ups should be more strictly limited on road sections on which a congestion charge is applied. The maximum level should also be adapted to differing circumstances.

Amendment 34

Proposal for a directive Recital 17 a (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(17a) As in respect to light duty vehicles, it is important to ensure that this Directive does not hamper the free movement of citizens . Member States should be allowed to introduce discounts and reductions when road users are disproportionately affected by charges due to geographical or social reasons.

Amendment 35

Proposal for a directive Recital 18

Text proposed by the Commission

(18) In order to exploit potential synergies among existing road charging systems so as to reduce operating costs, the Commission should be fully involved in the cooperation among Member States intending to introduce common road charging schemes.

Amendment

(18) In order to exploit potential synergies among existing road charging systems so as to reduce operating costs, the Commission should be fully involved in the cooperation among Member States intending to introduce common and interoperable road charging schemes.

Amendment 36

Proposal for a directive Recital 19

Text proposed by the Commission

(19) Road charges can mobilise resources that contribute to the financing of the maintenance and development of high quality transport infrastructure. It is therefore appropriate to incentivise Member States to use revenues from road charges accordingly and, to this end, to require that they adequately report on the use of such revenues. That should in particular help identifying possible financing gaps, and raising the public acceptance of road charging.

Amendment

(19) Road charges mobilise resources that contribute to the financing and cross-financing of alternative transport infrastructure projects and the maintenance and development of high quality transport infrastructures and services. It is therefore appropriate for Member States to use revenues from road charges accordingly and that they be required to adequately report on the use of such revenues. Revenues from infrastructure charges and external cost charges should therefore be reinvested in the transport sector. That should in particular help identifying possible financing gaps, and raising the public acceptance of road charging.

Amendment 37

Proposal for a directive Recital 21

Text proposed by the Commission

(21) It is necessary to ensure that external-cost charges continue to reflect the cost of air pollution and noise generated by heavy duty vehicles as accurately as possible

Amendment

(21) It is necessary to ensure that external-cost charges continue to reflect the cost of air pollution and noise generated by heavy duty vehicles as accurately as possible without rendering the charging scheme excessively complex, to incentivise the use of the most fuel-efficient vehicles, and to keep the incentives effective and the differentiation of road charges up-to-date. Therefore, the power to adopt acts in accordance with Article 290 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union should be delegated to the Commission for the purpose of adapting the reference values for external cost charging to scientific progress, defining the modalities for the revenue-neutral variation of infrastructure charges according to the CO2 emissions from heavy duty vehicles, and adapting the modalities of the variation of infrastructure charges for light duty vehicles to technical progress. It is of particular importance that the Commission carry out appropriate consultations during its preparatory work, including at expert level, and that those consultations be conducted in accordance with the principles laid down in the Interinstitutional Agreement on Better Law-Making of 13 April 2016²¹. In particular, to ensure equal participation in the preparation of delegated acts, the European Parliament and the Council receive all documents at the same time as Member States' experts, and their experts systematically have access to meetings of Commission expert groups dealing with the preparation of delegated acts.

Amendment 38

Proposal for a directive Recital 21 a (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(21a) No later than two years after the entry into force of the Directive, the Commission will put forward a generally applicable, transparent and clear framework for the internalisation of environmental, congestion and health costs that will form the basis for future calculations of infrastructure charges. In this connection, the Commission should be able to propose a model accompanied by an analysis of the impact on external-cost internalisation for all transport modes. As regards proportionality, account must be taken of all modes in connection with external-cost charging.

Amendment 39

Proposal for a directive Recital 21 b (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(21b) In the interest of transparency, it would be appropriate for Member States to disclose to road users the results achieved by the reinvestment of infrastructure charges, external-cost charges and congestion charges. They should therefore announce the benefits obtained in terms of improved road safety, reduced environmental impact and reduced traffic congestion.

Where a Member State intends to apply higher external-cost charges than the reference values specified in Annex IIIb, it shall notify the Commission of the classification of vehicles according to which the external-cost charge shall vary. It shall also notify the Commission of the location of roads subject to higher external-cost charges (called hereafter ‘suburban roads (including motorways)’), and of roads subject to lower external-cost charges (called hereafter ‘interurban roads (including motorways)’).

Where applicable, it shall also notify the Commission of the exact time periods corresponding to the night period during which a higher external noise-cost charge may be imposed to reflect greater noise nuisances.

The classification of roads as suburban roads (including motorways) and interurban roads (including motorways), and the definition of time periods shall be based on objective criteria related to the level of exposure of the roads and their vicinities to pollution such as population density, the annual mean air pollution (in particular for PM10 and NO2) and the number of days (for PM10) and hours (NO2) on which limit values established under Directive 2008/50/EC are exceeded.
