51. Directive 2009/126/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 21 October 2009 on Stage II petrol vapour recovery during refuelling of motor vehicles at service stations²¹

In order to ensure consistency with relevant standards drawn up by the European Committee for Standardisation (CEN), the power to adopt acts in accordance with Article 290 of the Treaty should be delegated to the Commission to amend certain provisions of Directive 2009/126/EC in order to adapt them to technical progress. It is of particular importance that the Commission carry out appropriate consultations during its preparatory work, including at expert level, and that those consultations be conducted in accordance with the principles laid down in the Interinstitutional Agreement on Better Law-Making of 13 April 2016. ²² OJ L 20, 26.1.2010, p. 7.

There is no need to empower the Commission to amend Annexes I and V to Directive 2009/147/EC. Therefore, the possibility to adopt those implementing measures in accordance with the regulatory procedure with scrutiny should be removed from Directive 2009/147/EC, without replacing it with an empowerment conferred in accordance with Article 290(1) or Article 291(2) of the Treaty.

In particular, to ensure equal participation in the preparation of delegated acts, the European Parliament and the Council receive all documents at the same time as Member States' experts, and their experts systematically have access to meetings of Commission expert groups dealing with the preparation of delegated acts.

In order to ensure uniform conditions for the implementation of Regulation (EC) No 1221/2009 implementing powers should be conferred on the Commission concerning the harmonisation of certain procedures and in relation to sectoral reference documents. - [...]

It is of particular importance that the Commission carry out appropriate consultations during its preparatory work, including at expert level, and that those consultations be conducted in accordance with the principles laid down in the Interinstitutional Agreement on Better Law-Making of 13 April 2016. In particular, to ensure equal participation in the preparation of delegated acts, the European Parliament and the Council receive all documents at the same time as Member States' experts, and their experts systematically have access to meetings of Commission expert groups dealing with the preparation of delegated acts.

Those powers should be exercised in accordance with Regulation (EU) No 182/2011.

As regards the development of EU Ecolabel criteria for food and feed, in 2011 the Commission published a study on the feasibility of developing Ecolabel criteria for food and feed products. Therefore, it is not necessary to [...] confer on the Commission implementing powers to decide for which food and feed groups the development of Ecolabel criteria is feasible.

Accordingly, Regulation (EC) No 66/2010 is amended as follows:

No derogation shall be given concerning substances that meet the criteria of Article 57 of Regulation (EC) No 1907/2006 and that are identified in accordance with the procedure set out in Article 59(1) of that Regulation, present in mixtures, in an article or in any homogeneous part of a complex article in concentrations higher than 0,1 % (weight by weight).";

3. The delegation of power referred to in [...] Article 15 may be revoked at any time by the European Parliament or by the Council. A decision to revoke shall put an end to the delegation of the power specified in that decision. It shall take effect the day following the publication of the decision in the Official Journal of the European Union or at a later date specified therein.
