Subject: Proposal for a Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council establishing the Justice programme
- Partial mandate for negotiations with the European Parliament

I. INTRODUCTION

1. On 30 May 2018, the Commission adopted the proposal for a Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council establishing the Justice Programme<sup>1</sup> (hereinafter: the proposal for a Regulation establishing the Justice Programme). It is one of the proposals related to the Multiannual Financial Framework (hereinafter: MFF).

2. The proposal for a Regulation establishing the Justice Programme aims at supporting the further development of a European area of justice based on the Union's values, the rule of law and mutual recognition and trust, in particular by facilitating access to justice, and at promoting judicial cooperation in civil and criminal matters, as well as the effectiveness of national justice systems. Together with the Rights and Values programme, the new programme will form part of a new Justice, Rights and Values' Fund, helping to sustain open, democratic, pluralist and inclusive societies. It will also help to empower citizens by protecting and promoting rights and values and by further developing an EU area of justice.
3. In the European Parliament, the proposal is being considered by the Committee on Legal Affairs and the Committee on Civil Liberties, Justice and Home Affairs. Ms. Heidi HAUTALA and Mr. Josef WEIDENHOLZER have been appointed as rapporteurs. The European Parliament is expected to adopt its position early 2019.
4. The European Economic and Social Committee adopted its position on 18 October 2018.

II. WORK WITHIN THE COUNCIL

5. The Commission presented the proposal and the impact assessment to the ad Hoc Working Party on JHA Financial Instruments in July 2018.
6. Several readings of the proposal for a Regulation establishing the Justice Programme took place: it was initially considered at the meeting of the Working Party on 19 July 2018 and was further examined at the meetings 3 September, 3 October and 5 December 2018, on the basis of compromise suggestions submitted by the Presidency.

7. Delegations reached agreement on the proposal for a Regulation establishing the Justice Programme, as modified by the final compromise text submitted by the Presidency at the meeting of the ad-hoc Working Party on 5 December 2018<sup>2</sup>, which is set out in the Annex to this Note.
8. Since the proposal for a Regulation establishing the Justice Programme is one of the package of proposals linked to the MFF, all provisions with budgetary implications or of horizontal nature have been set aside and thus excluded from the partial general approach aimed for pending further progress on the MFF. The relevant provisions, which appear between square brackets in the text, are the following:
  - recital 24, with respect to the part concerning the rule of law;
  - recital 26, on climate change;
  - Article 4 (budget), paragraph 1 - financial envelope -;
  - Article 5 (third countries associated to the programmes);
  - Article 6 (implementation and forms of EU funding), paragraph 3;
  - Article 9 (cumulative, [complementarity] and combined funding), part of paragraph 1;
  - Article 15 (protection of the financial interests of the Union) and the corresponding recital 22.

III. CONCLUSION

9. In light of the above, the Presidency considers that the text of the proposal for a Regulation establishing the Justice Programme, as set out in the Annex to this Note, is a solid and balanced basis to adopt partial mandate for negotiations with the European Parliament.

The Permanent Representatives Committee is therefore invited to adopt a partial mandate for negotiations with the European Parliament at its meeting on 19 December 2018.

Proposal for a

REGULATION OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL

establishing the Justice programme

THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in particular, Article 81(1) and (2), Article 82(1) thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the European Commission,

After transmission of the draft legislative act to the national parliaments,

Having regard to the opinion of the European Economic and Social Committee<sup>3</sup>,

Having regard to the opinion of the Committee of the Regions<sup>4</sup>,

Acting in accordance with the ordinary legislative procedure,

Whereas:

- (1) According to Article 2 of the Treaty on European Union, ‘the Union is founded on the values of respect for human dignity, freedom democracy, equality, the rule of law and the respect for human rights, including the rights of the persons belonging to minorities. These values are common to the Member States in a society where pluralism, non-discrimination, tolerance, justice, solidarity and equality between women and men prevail’. Article 3 further specifies that the ‘Union’s aim is to promote peace, its values and the well-being of its people’ and, among others, ‘it shall respect its rich cultural and linguistic diversity, and shall ensure that Europe’s cultural heritage is safeguarded and enhanced’. These values are further reaffirmed and articulated in the rights, freedoms and principles enshrined in the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union (‘the Charter’).

- (2) These rights and values must continue to be promoted and enforced, shared among the citizens and peoples within the Union and be at the heart of Europe's societies. Therefore, a new Justice, Rights and Values Fund, comprising the Rights and Values and the Justice programmes shall be created in the Union budget. At a time where European societies are confronted with extremism, radicalism and divisions, it is more important than ever to promote, strengthen and defend justice, rights and EU values: human rights, respect for human dignity, freedom, democracy, equality, the rule of law. This will have profound and direct implications for political, social, cultural and economic life in the EU. As a part of the new Fund, the Rights and Values Programme will bring together the 2014-2020 Rights, Equality and Citizenship Programme established by Regulation (EU) No 1381/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council<sup>5</sup> and the Europe for Citizens programme established by Regulation (EU) No 390/2014 of the Council<sup>6</sup>. The Justice programme (hereafter the 'Programme') will continue to support the development of an integrated European justice area and cross-border cooperation, in continuity with the 2014-2020 Justice Programme established by Regulation (EU) No 1382/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council<sup>7</sup> (hereafter 'the predecessor Programme').
- (3) The Justice, Rights and Values Fund and its two underlying funding programmes will focus primarily on people and entities which contribute to make our common values, rights and rich diversity alive and vibrant. The ultimate objective is to nurture and sustain a rights based, equal, inclusive, open, pluralist and democratic society. That includes a vibrant civil society, encouraging people's democratic, civic, and social participation and to fostering the rich diversity of the European society, also based on our common memory and history. Article 11 of the Treaty further specifies that the institutions of the Union shall, by appropriate means, give citizens and representative associations the opportunity to make known and publicly exchange their views in all areas of the EU action.
- (4) The Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (TFEU) provides for the creation of an area of freedom, security and justice, with respect for fundamental rights and the different legal systems and traditions of the Member States. To that end, the Union may adopt measures to develop judicial cooperation in civil matters and judicial cooperation in criminal matters and to promote and support the action of Member States in the field of crime prevention. Respect for fundamental rights as well as for common principles and values, such as non-discrimination, gender equality, effective access to justice for all, the rule of law and a well-functioning independent judicial system should be ensured in the further development of a European area of justice.

- (5) Financing should remain one of the important tools for the successful implementation of the ambitious goals set by the Treaties. They should be attained inter alia by establishing a flexible and effective Justice Programme which should facilitate planning and implementation of those goals.
- (6) For the gradual establishment of an area of freedom, security and justice, the Union is to adopt measures relating to judicial cooperation in civil and criminal matters based on the principle of mutual recognition of judgments and judicial decisions, which is a cornerstone of judicial cooperation within the Union since the Tampere European Council of 15 and 16 October 1999. Mutual recognition requires a high level of mutual trust among Member States. Measures to approximate the laws of the Member States in several areas have been adopted to facilitate mutual recognition and foster mutual trust. A well-functioning area of justice, where obstacles in cross-border judicial proceedings and access to justice in cross-border situations are eliminated, is also key to ensure economic growth.
- (7) Respect for the rule of law is essential for a high level of mutual trust in the area of justice and home affairs, in particular for effective judicial cooperation in civil and criminal matters which is based on mutual recognition. The rule of law is one of the common values enshrined in Article 2 TEU, and the principle of effective judicial protection provided for in Articles 19(1) TEU and 47 of the Charter of Fundamental Rights is a concrete expression of the rule of law. Promoting the rule of law by supporting the efforts to improve the independence, quality and efficiency of national justice systems enhances the mutual trust which is indispensable for judicial cooperation in civil and criminal matters.
- (8) Pursuant to Articles 81(2)(h) and 82(1)(c) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the EU, the Union shall support the training of the judiciary and judicial staff as a tool to improve judicial cooperation in civil and criminal matters based on the principle of mutual recognition of judgments and of judicial decisions. Training of justice professionals is an important tool to develop a common understanding of how best to uphold the rule of law. It contributes to the building of the European area of justice by creating a common judicial culture among justice professionals of the Member States. It is essential to ensure the correct and coherent application of law in the Union and mutual trust between justice professionals in cross-border proceedings. The training activities supported by the Programme should be based on sound training needs' assessments, use state of the art training methodology, include cross-border events gathering justice professionals of different Member States, comprise active learning and networking elements and be sustainable.
- (8a) The notion of 'judiciary and judicial staff' should be interpreted in extenso as covering judges, prosecutors, court and prosecutor's office staff, as well as any other justice professionals associated with the judiciary or otherwise participating in the administration of justice, irrespective of their national definition, legal status and internal organisation, such as lawyers, notaries, bailiffs, insolvency practitioners, mediators, court interpreters and translators, court experts, prison staff and probation officers.

- (9) Judicial training can involve different actors, such as Member States' legal, judicial and administrative authorities, academic institutions, national bodies responsible for judicial training, European-level training organisations or networks, or networks of court coordinators of Union law. Bodies and entities pursuing a general European interest in the field of training of the judiciary, such as the European Judicial Training Network ('EJTN'), the Academy of European Law ('ERA'), the European Network of Councils for the Judiciary ('ENCJ'), the Association of the Councils of State and Supreme Administrative Jurisdictions of the European Union ('ACA-Europe'), the Network of the Presidents of Supreme Judicial Courts of the European Union ('RPCSJUE') and the European Institute of Public Administration ('EIPA'), should continue to play their role in promoting training programmes with a genuine European dimension for the judiciary and judicial staff, and could therefore be granted adequate financial support in accordance with the procedures and the criteria set out in the work programmes adopted by the Commission pursuant to this Regulation.
- (10) The programme should support the annual work programme of EJTN, which is an essential actor of judicial training. The EJTN is in an exceptional situation, insofar as it is the only network at Union level gathering the judicial training bodies of the Member States. It is in a unique position to organise exchanges for new and experienced judges and prosecutors between all Member States and to coordinate the work of the national judicial training bodies regarding the organisation of training activities on Union law and the promotion of good training practices. The EJTN is also a provider of training activities of excellent quality delivered in a cost-efficient manner at Union level. Moreover, it comprises the judicial training bodies of candidate countries as observer members.
- (11) Measures under the Programme should support enhanced mutual recognition of judicial decisions and judgments in civil and criminal matters and the necessary approximation of legislation that will facilitate cooperation between all the relevant authorities, including by electronic means. It should also support the judicial protection of individual rights in civil and commercial matters. The Programme should also advance greater convergence in civil law that will help to eliminate obstacles to good and efficient functioning judicial and extra-judicial procedures in benefit of all parties in a civil dispute. Finally, in order to support the effective enforcement and practical application of the Union law on judicial cooperation in civil matters, the Programme should support the functioning of the European Judicial Network in Civil and Commercial matters established by Council Decision 2001/470/EC. In criminal matters, the programme should help fostering and implementing rules and procedures for ensuring recognition of judgement and decisions throughout the Union. It should facilitate cooperation and contribute to eliminating obstacles to good cooperation and to mutual trust. The Programme should also contribute to improving access to justice, by promoting and supporting the rights of victims of crime as well as the procedural rights of suspects and accused persons in criminal proceedings.
- (12) Pursuant to Article 3(3) of TEU, Article 24 of the Charter and the 1989 United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child, the Programme should support the protection of the rights of the child, and should mainstream the promotion of the rights of the child in the implementation of all actions of the Programme concerning children.

- (13) The 2014-2020 Programme has enabled training activities on Union law, in particular on the scope and application of the Charter, targeted at members of the judiciary and other legal practitioners. In its conclusions of 12 October 2017 on the application of the Charter in 2016, the Council recalled the importance of awareness-raising on the application of the Charter, including among policymakers, legal practitioners and the rights holders themselves, at national as well as at Union level. Therefore, to mainstream fundamental rights in a consistent way, it is necessary to continue financial support to awareness-raising activities for other public authorities than judicial authorities and legal practitioners.
- (14) Pursuant to Article 67 TFEU, the Union should constitute an area of freedom, security and justice with respect for fundamental rights, to which access to justice is instrumental. In order to facilitate effective access to justice, and with a view to foster the mutual trust which is indispensable for the good functioning of the area of freedom, security and justice, it is necessary to extend financial support to activities of other authorities than judicial authorities and legal practitioners, as well as of civil society organisations, which contribute to these objectives.
- (15) Pursuant to Articles 8 and 10 TFEU, the Programme should also support gender mainstreaming and non-discrimination objectives in all its activities.
- (16) Actions covered by this Regulation should contribute to the creation of a European area of justice, increasing cross-border cooperation and networking and achieving the correct, coherent and consistent application of Union law. Funding activities should also contribute to a common understanding of the Union's values, to the rule of law, to better knowledge of Union law and policies, to sharing know-how and best practices in using judicial cooperation instruments by all concerned stakeholders, as well as to a proliferation of interoperable digital solutions underpinning seamless and efficient cross-border cooperation, and should provide a sound analytical basis to support the development, enforcement and proper implementation of Union law and policies. Union intervention allows for those actions to be pursued consistently across the Union and brings economies of scale. Moreover, the Union is in a better position than Member States to address cross-border situations and to provide a European platform for mutual learning.
- (17) The Commission should ensure overall consistency, complementarity and synergies with the work of Union bodies, offices and agencies, such as EUROJUST, eu-LISA and the European Public Prosecutor Office, and should take stock of the work of other national and international actors in the areas covered by the Programme.

- (18) It is necessary to ensure the European added value of all actions and activities carried out within the Programme, their complementarity to Member States' activities, and their consistency with other Union activities. In order to ensure efficient allocation of funds from the general budget of the Union, consistency, complementarity and synergies should be sought between funding programmes supporting policy areas with close links to each other, in particular within the Justice, Rights and Values Fund – and thus with the Rights and Values Programme- and between the Programme and the Single Market Programme, Border management and Security, in particular the Asylum and Migration ('AMIF') and the Internal Security Funds, Strategic Infrastructure in particular the Digital Europe Programme, the Erasmus+ Programme, the Framework Programme for research and innovation, the Instrument for Pre-accession Assistance, and the LIFE Regulation<sup>8</sup>.
- (19) This Regulation lays down a financial envelope for the Justice programme which is to constitute the prime reference amount, within the meaning of [reference to be updated as appropriate according to the new inter-institutional agreement: point 17 of the Interinstitutional Agreement of 2 December 2013 between the European Parliament, the Council and the Commission on budgetary discipline, on cooperation in budgetary matters and on sound financial management<sup>9</sup>], for the European Parliament and the Council during the annual budgetary procedure.
- (20) Regulation (EU, Euratom) No [the new FR] (the 'Financial Regulation') applies to this Programme. It lays down rules on the implementation of the Union budget, including the rules on grants, prizes, procurement, indirect implementation, financial assistance, financial instruments and budgetary guarantees.
- (21) The types of financing and the methods of implementation under this Regulation should be chosen on the basis of their ability to achieve the specific objectives of the actions and to deliver results, taking into account, in particular, the costs of controls, the administrative burden, and the expected risk of non-compliance. This should include consideration of the use of lump sums, flat rates and unit costs, as well as financing not linked to costs as referred to in Article 125(1) of the Financial Regulation.
