Subject: Financial Services' Delegated Acts:
= Decision to extend a time limit

1. The Commission notified the Council on the above referred fourteen delegated acts¹ in accordance with the procedure set out in Article 290 TFEU.
2. Member States should be granted sufficient time to scrutinise the above referred delegated acts. Therefore, the objection periods as regards these delegated acts should be extended once for a period corresponding to the objection period, in accordance with applicable legislation.
3. It is therefore suggested that Coreper invites the Council to approve extending the objection period of the above referred delegated acts as set out in point 2 above.
