Subject :	Negotiations with a view to concluding agreements between the European Union and Iceland and Norway on the application of certain provisions in the field of judicial co-operation in criminal matters on the basis of Articles 24 and 38 of the Treaty on European Union - Mutual legal assistance

RESTREINT UE

Pursuant to this negotiation mandate the Presidency has met twice with a delegation from Norway and Iceland, on 7 April and 18 June 2003. As far as mutual legal assistance is concerned, the Presidency has proposed a draft agreement to Norway and Iceland. The purpose of this note is to inform delegations of the discussions that have taken place and to seek their opinion on the draft, which is reproduced in the annex.

Norway and Iceland could to a large extent agree to the draft agreement, which seeks to extend the non-Schengen-relevant articles of the 2000 EU Mutual Assistance Convention to Norway and Iceland.

From a drafting point of view, Norway and Iceland seemed, however, to have preferred another structure than the one that follows now from Article 1 of the draft agreement. As the listing of the applicable articles could be read as excluding the preamble of the 2000 Convention and its 2001 Protocol, the question was raised whether it would not be possible to copy the preamble or refer to the 2000 Convention as such, minus those articles that are not applicable.

As to the content, three minor questions were raised.

- 1) Territorial scope: Norway and Iceland queried whether Article 26 of the 2000 EU Mutual Assistance Convention and Article 12 of the 2001 EU Mutual Assistance Protocol could also be applied to them. The Presidency is of the opinion that Norway and Iceland should be treated as Member States in this matter and that Article 26 should become applicable to them.
- 2) Article 10:2 of the 2001 EU Mutual Assistance Protocol: Norway thought that this article could also be applied to it, in view of the negotiations with Eurojust. Iceland would need further internal consultation on this issue. The Presidency is of the opinion that Article 10:2 could also be applied to Norway and Iceland.

- 3) Dispute settlement: whereas Norway was not opposed to a dispute settlement through a meeting of representatives of the governments of the Member States of the European Union and of Iceland and Norway (as described in Article 3 of the draft Agreement), it thought that COMIX should also be given a role. The Presidency expounded that COMIX was dealing with Schengen-relevant matters and that therefore it was not the appropriate body for an agreement that is concerned only with non-Schengen-relevant matters.

Norway proposed to insert a new paragraph in Article 3 of the draft agreement (the current text would then become Article 3(2)):

"Questions regarding the interpretation, application and development of this Agreement and the provisions referred to in Article 1 of this Agreement will upon request by any of the parties be discussed in the Mixed Committee set up by Agreement of 18 May 1999 concluded by the Council and Iceland and Norway on the latter's association with the application, implementation and development of the provisions of the Schengen acquis."

The Presidency is of the opinion that this proposal should be rejected.

The Presidency would like to be informed of the Member States' positions on these matters.

Should delegations have other remarks on the draft, the Presidency would equally like to be informed of them.

DRAFT AGREEMENT

between the European Union and the Republic of Iceland and the Kingdom of Norway on the application of certain provisions of the Convention of 29 May 2000 on Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters between the Member States of the European Union and the 2001 Protocol thereto

THE EUROPEAN UNION,
on the one hand,

and

THE REPUBLIC OF ICELAND
and
THE KINGDOM OF NORWAY
on the other hand,

Together hereinafter called the Contracting Parties,

Considering that in Article 2 paragraph 1 of the Convention of 29 May 2000 on Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters between the Member States of the European Union and in Article 15 of the Protocol of 16 October 2001 thereto the provisions have been identified which constitute a development of the Schengen acquis, and which therefore have been accepted by Iceland and Norway by virtue of their obligations under the Agreement of 18 May 1999 concluded by the Council and Iceland and Norway on the latter's association with the application, implementation and development of the provisions of the Schengen acquis;

Considering that Iceland and Norway have expressed their wish to enter into an agreement enabling them to apply also the other provisions of the 2000 Mutual Assistance Convention and of the 2001 Protocol in their relations with the Member States of the European Union;

RESTREINT UE

Considering that the European Union also considers it necessary to have such an agreement in place;

HAVE AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

To this end a mechanism shall be set up to ensure regular mutual transmission of such case law.
