Dear Mrs. President,

Following our meeting in Brussels, I would like to express my full appreciation for the very good conversation we had, for your profound and insightful analysis on the activity of the next European Commission, as well as for your understanding of the Commission's structure and of the repartition of the portfolios.

I would take this opportunity to reiterate our proposals for the position of Romanian member of the European Commission, Mrs. Rovana Plumb and Mr. Dan Nica, hoping that their experience would be appreciated and considered valuable during the selection process.

Please accept, dear Mrs. President, the expression of my highest consideration.

Viorica Dănciă

Mrs. Ursula von der Leyen
President-elect
European Commission
