'I/A' ITEM NOTE

From: Presidency
To: Permanent Representatives Committee (Part 2)/Council

No. prev. doc.: 5534/20
No. Cion doc.: 9622/18

Subject: Proposal for a Regulation of the European parliament and of the Council amending Regulation (EC) No 1393/2007 of the European Parliament and of the the Council on the service in the Member States of judicial and extrajudicial documents in civil or commercial matters (service of documents)
- General approach

1. The Commission adopted the abovementioned revision proposal¹ on 31 May 2018, and submitted it to the Council and Parliament. The legal basis is Article 81 (Judicial cooperation in civil matters) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and the proposal is subject to the ordinary legislative procedure.
2. At its meeting on 3/4 December 2019, the Council adopted a general approach on the above-mentioned proposal, except for the Annexes.

3. The Working Party on Civil Law Matters (Service of documents/Taking of evidence) met on 8 January 2020 and the JHA Counsellors Civil Law Matters (Service of documents/Taking of evidence) met on 20 January 2020 to examine the text of the Annexes on the basis of a text drawn up by the Presidency. At its meeting on 30 January 2020 the JHA Counsellors agreed on the text suggested by the Presidency, subject to some minor changes.
4. At this examination it became clear that the it was necessary to change the text of the general approach and the text of the existing Regulation in order to take into account of the changes to the Annexes that had been agreed.
5. Pursuant to Article 3 of Protocol (No 21) to the Treaties on the Position of the United Kingdom and Ireland in respect of the Area of Freedom, Security and Justice, Ireland and the United Kingdom have decided to opt in to this proposal². In application of Protocol (No 22) to the Treaties on the Position of Denmark, Denmark does not take part in the adoption of the proposed measures.
6. The Permanent Representatives Committee is accordingly invited to recommend that the Council endorse as the supplementary general approach the text of the Annexes to the Regulation on the service of documents as it appears in Annex I and the text of the necessary changes to the general approach and the existing Regulation as it appears in Annex II , as an "A" item of the agenda of one of its forthcoming sessions,

² Recitals on the opt-in / opt-out should be reviewed at a later stage, taking into account the situation of the UK with regard to the application of Union law.

I. INFORMATION TO THE ADDRESSEE

The enclosed document is served in accordance with Regulation (EC) No .../...⁺ of the European Parliament and of the Council on the service in the Member States of judicial and extrajudicial documents in civil or commercial matters.

You may refuse to accept the document if it is not written in or accompanied by a translation into either a language which you understand or the official language or one of the official languages of the place of service.

If you wish to exercise this right, you must refuse to accept the document at the time of service directly with the person serving the document or within two weeks of service by returning to the address indicated below this standard form completed by you or any written declaration indicating that you refuse to accept the document because of its language.

Please note that if you refuse to accept the document but the court or authority seized with the legal proceedings in a course of which the service became necessary subsequently decides that the refusal was not justified, it may apply legal consequences provided for by its national law for unjustified refusals of service, such as deeming the service valid.
