			Union network for the collection of farm sustainability data (hereinafter referred to as ‘data network’), based on data collectors existing in each Member State, enjoying the confidence of the parties concerned.
15b			(4b) Data are currently collected mainly to assess economic aspects of holdings, while there is a need that an overall sustainability of the holding is assessed including environmental data linked to soil, air, water and biodiversity, as well as data covering the social dimension of farming. It is appropriate to lay down the main categories of economic, environmental and social data that can be collected and compiled in the FSDN in an Annex to this Regulation. The data topics should be linked to the needs of the CAP and be relevant for the assessment of Union agriculture’s and holdings’ sustainability. In order to take into account future sustainability challenges, the Commission should be empowered to adopt delegated acts to amend that Annex without adding new topics while taking into consideration the relevance of the data to be collected and compiled and the administrative burden on national authorities and holdings.

15c			(4c) To describe the social dimension of sustainability, it is necessary to compile certain types of personal data of persons working in the agricultural sector. Such information should support the analysis for the specific objectives of the CAP under Article 6(1), points (g) and (h), of Regulation (EU) 2021/2115. The processing of such personal data should be limited to the data categories that are strictly necessary to fulfil the purpose of this Regulation, and should exclude sensitive personal data.

	Commission Proposal	EP Mandate	Council Mandate	Draft Agreement
15d			(4d) The Commission should publish the results of analyses on the state of Union's sustainability, in particular to allow the use of these results for benchmarking purposes.
15e			(4e) Article 8(1), point (c), of Regulation (EU) 2022/2379 of the European Parliament and of the Council¹ and Article 4(1), point (c), of Regulation (EU) 2018/1091 of the European Parliament and of the Council² give the possibilities to Member States to use other sources for statistical surveys. Annex I of Regulation (EC) No 138/2004 of the European Parliament and of the Council³ refers to the use of FADN data. Based on these options and for the purpose of the reuse of data and gaining efficiencies it should be useful to allow Member States to use FSDN data for statistical purposes. ¹. 15f			(4f) In order to gather for the larger scope of FSDN data it is appropriate to adapt the definitions. In particular, the definition of "farm" and "holding" should be made more suitable for analytical purposes in coherence with similar definitions used for statistical purposes. The definition of "individual data" should reflect the concept that data of both, natural persons and legal

17a			(6a) The conversion to FSDN should enable the benchmarking of data from the returning holding against aggregated data where the data represents several returning holdings and is presented in the form of regional, national, Union or sectorial averages. Regarding accountancy data, holdings' accounts constitute the basic source for any assessment of their income or study of their business operation. The regional, national, Union or sectorial averages should also be made available at Member State level to enhance knowledge on agricultural situation.

19b			(8b) In order to ensure that the data in the farm return are comparable, implementing powers should be conferred on the Commission to adopt implementing acts on the surveys, to define the variables for which data should be compiled and the rules for data transmission to the Commission. When defining these variables, the Commission should endeavour to use existing data sources and analyze the feasibility of the variables, based on inputs from Member States on possible data sources and methods, with a view to limiting the burden on Member States and returning holdings. While striving to ensure that the data collected are comparable and useful for analytical purposes, in order to obtain a complete and uniform Union-wide dataset, it is appropriate to accommodate specific circumstances of Member States, and specific and justified exemptions should therefore be possible.

Any other usage of the individual data by the Member States or by the Commission, in particular for control or taxation purposes, should be prohibited.

Concerning the data from other datasets it should be clarified in addition that making them public in aggregated and anonymised format is performed only for the purposes of this Regulation and is thus without prejudice to the rules on these datasets provided for in the relevant specific Union legislation.

In addition, provisions should be established prohibiting persons participating in the data network from disclosing individual data. Concerning personal data, the full scope of protection, including the rights and obligations of the data subjects and the data processors, should comply with Articles 7 and 8 of the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union and with Regulations (EU) 2016/679 and 2018/1725. 1. 21e			(10e) In accordance with Regulations (EU) 2016/679 and (EU) 2018/1725, personal data have to be retained only for as long as they are needed for the purposes for which that data were collected. The uses of FSDN data, and of the personal data included therein, should include the possibility to analyse long-term trends based on indicators, such as on nutrient management or emissions, the evolution of those indicators which needs to be assessed over a long period of time to keep pace with natural phenomena. Therefore, analyses should be regularly performed, especially on environmental information. Other subjects that imply the use of long term analyses include land use and prices, which inform about structural changes in farming. It should also be possible to build such long-term analysis based on sharing of data between different datasets established through linkages at individual level. Data sharing should enhance information availability, considering challenges that Union agriculture may face in the future. Such challenges are not possible to foresee at the current stage, especially with regard to the future needs for retrospective studies that cannot be established with sufficient certainty. In view of the above, it is not appropriate to set a time limit for the utilisation of data, but rather to keep data as long as it is needed to perform time series analyses.

21f			(10f) The compilation, processing and use of personal data should be justified and proportionate in relation to the purposes of the operations, concerned, in accordance with, among others, the principle of data minimisation. A high proportion of farmers in the Union are natural persons. Information available from the Union Integrated Farm statistic shows that, in 2020, among the total number of holdings in the 21g			(10g) For the purposes of processing of personal data at Union level, roles connected to the management and processing of personal data should be determined. The data processing roles at Union level should apply to the data as from the transmission of that data to the Commission through the farm returns. Member States should determine the management of personal data within their jurisdiction, including data protection roles, in accordance with Regulation (EU) 2016/679, taking into consideration in particular the fact that data may be collected for multiple purposes, one of which may be the use in farm returns.
