Madrid, April 25th, 2020

On April 10th Spain decided to prolong the reintroduction of controls at its internal land borders for a period of 15 days until April 25th in order to avoid the spreading of COVID-19.

The current circumstances recommend once again prolonging all preventive measures taken against the spread of the disease, including the state of alarm in Spain, which has just been extended until May 9th. These measures have allowed being more effective in the fight against the virus as the spread is advancing at a slower pace. Therefore, a new further extension of controls at the internal borders is considered a proportionate measure, coherent with those adopted inside our territory and by other Member States, especially France and Portugal, the two EU Member States neighboring our land borders.

Therefore, in accordance with article 28.3 of the Schengen Borders Code, I have issued the Order INT/368/2020 of the Minister of Interior of April 24th prolonging controls temporarily reintroduced at the internal borders due to COVID-19, by which border controls at the internal land borders are maintained from 00:00, April 26th to 00:00, May 10th. The following categories of persons are exempted:
