 - the approval of the Council conclusions on Human Rights, Participation and Well-Being of Older Persons in the Era of Digitalisation, set out in doc. ST 11087/20;
2. Therefore, the above conclusions of the Council are approved.
3. The statements by Poland and Slovakia are reproduced in the Annex to this CM.

The above statements will be included in the summary of acts adopted by the written procedure as statements to be entered in the Council minutes, in accordance with the third subparagraph of Article 12(1) of the Council's Rules of Procedure.

Statement from Poland

Equality between women and men is enshrined in the Treaties of the European Union as a fundamental right. Poland ensures equality between women and men within the framework of the Polish national legal system in accordance with internationally binding human rights instruments and within the framework of fundamental values and principles of the European Union. For these reasons, in places, where the conclusions refer to gender equality, Poland will interpret it as equality between women and men, according to Article 8 TFEU.

Statement from Slovakia

The Slovak Republic recognizes and promotes equality between men and women in accordance with the Constitution of the Slovak Republic and primary law of the European Union. In this context, the Slovak Republic interprets the concept of "gender" in the text of the Council Recommendation and Council Conclusions as reference to sex, and the concept of "gender equality" as reference to the equality between men and women.
