This working document gives details of the committees that assist the Commission in each policy sector and snapshots of their activities in 2019. It lists all the committees for which each Commission department is responsible, whether they are still active or not, in order to provide transparency with regard to policy sector activities. The comments below the tables highlight any important changes (e.g. the creation, transfer or abolition of committees or procedures) together with any cases referred to the appeal committee and, for the regulatory procedure with scrutiny, any cases referred to the Council (in cases where the committee issued a negative opinion or no opinion) or in which the European Parliament or the Council opposed the adoption of a measure during the year in question.

Details of each committee, such as basic legal acts and applicable comitology procedure(s), are available in the Comitology Register:

http://ec.europa.eu/transparency/regcomitology/index\_en.htm.

Explanatory remarks

The following explanations are intended to help the reader to better understand the statistical data, and in particular, why the total number of positive opinions may differ from the total number of implementing acts/measures adopted in a specific sector:

Opinions delivered by the committees may concern various types of instruments: draft Commission acts (directives, regulations), decisions designed to regulate a specific legal situation, or decisions funding projects under one of the many EU programmes. The impact of the committee's opinion varies, depending on the procedure.

Under the examination procedure, following a positive opinion the Commission adopts the implementing act. It may also adopt an implementing act if no opinion is given (although the committee has taken a vote<sup>1</sup>), with the exception of the following three cases: where the draft implementing act concerns certain sensitive areas<sup>2</sup>; where the basic legal act provides that the draft implementing act may not be adopted where no opinion is delivered; or where a simple majority of the members of the committee opposes the draft. Following a negative opinion, the Commission cannot adopt the implementing act. However, in cases of a negative opinion or 'no opinion' with a blocking effect, if the Commission deems the act necessary it can continue the procedure by either amending the draft implementing act and submitting the revised version to the (same) committee or by referring the original draft to the appeal committee. If the Commission refers the draft implementing act to the appeal committee and the appeal committee delivers a positive opinion, the Commission adopts the implementing act. The Commission may also adopt the implementing act if the appeal committee gives no opinion. If the appeal committee delivers a negative opinion, the Commission cannot adopt the implementing act.

Under the advisory procedure, the committee's opinion is not legally binding, but the Commission must take the utmost account of the conclusions drawn from the discussions within the committee and of the opinion delivered before deciding on the draft implementing act.

Under the regulatory procedure with scrutiny, following a positive opinion, the Commission adopts the measure. If a negative opinion or no opinion is given, the Commission submits a proposal on the measure to the Council, which then has the power to decide (see Cases referred to the Council). In addition, the European Parliament and the Council can oppose the adoption of a draft measure, even if the committee has given a positive opinion.

<sup>2</sup> Taxation, financial services, the protection of the health or safety of humans, animals or plants, or definitive multilateral safeguard measures.

The total number of positive opinions delivered by committees may differ from the number of implementing acts/measures adopted by the Commission in a given sector, if opinions are delivered one year but the instruments are not adopted until the following year.

A number of committees had no activity at all in the reporting year. This is indicated by the figure '0' in all columns.
