Subject : Recommendation from the Commission to the Council authorising the Commission to open negotiations in the framework of the Council of Europe Committee of Experts deliberations on an Additional Protocol to the Convention on Laundering, Search, Seizure and Confiscation of the Proceeds from Crime of November 1990

On 25 June 2004 the Commission submitted Recommendation from the Commission to the Council authorising the Commission to open negotiations in the framework of the Council of Europe Committee of Experts deliberations on an Additional Protocol to the Convention on Laundering, Search, Seizure and Confiscation of the Proceeds from Crime of November 1990.

On 22 July 2004 the Multidisciplinary group on organised crime (MDG) discussed this proposal. Further to the discussions that took place in the Multidisciplinary group on organised crime on 22 July, delegations will find attached a revised version of the Commission proposal contained in doc. 10933/04 CRIMORG 57 RESTREINT UE.

ANNEX

Draft Council Decision authorising the Commission to negotiate, on behalf of the Community, the Draft Additional Protocol to the Council of Europe Convention on Laundering, Search, Seizure and Confiscation of the Proceeds from Crime

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION, hereby,

- authorises the Commission to negotiate those aspects of the draft Additional Protocol which are a matter of Community competence. This competence relates to Articles 1(f) and 10, in as far as they relate to Community competence, and 11 and 12 of the draft Additional Protocol;
- decides that the negotiations, to the extent of the Community competence in the above Articles, will be conducted by the Commission, in accordance with the negotiation directives contained in the Annex to this decision;
- appoints a special committee to assist it in this task.

ANNEX to the decision

Negotiation directives

1. The Commission shall negotiate the provisions of the Additional Protocol to the Convention on Laundering, Search, Seizure and Confiscation of the Proceeds from Crime to the extent that such provisions are matters of Community competence.
2. The Commission shall seek to ensure that the Additional Protocol is compatible with measures of Community law based on the Treaty establishing the European Community. The Commission shall support the inclusion in the Additional Protocol of general preventive measures addressing in particular questions relating to customer due diligence which are compatible with the Community Directives on prevention of use of the financial system for the purpose of money laundering.
3. The Commission shall seek to ensure that the Additional Protocol takes into account the standards of the Financial Action Task Force which are a matter of Community competence and is in accordance with these standards. (The Additional Protocol should also take into account other relevant international instruments, notably the UN Convention against Transnational Organised Crime and the UN Convention against Corruption).
4. [...].
5. [...].
6. The draft Additional Protocol should include a clause providing that the Community may accede to the Additional Protocol.

RESTREINT UE

7. The draft Additional Protocol should include a clause providing for the Community to take part in all the decisions subject to Community competence to be commonly adopted by the Contracting Parties to Additional Protocol, and the principle that the Community should have the same number of votes as the number of its Member States that are parties to the Convention.
8. Should it prove appropriate in view of the content of the Protocol and Community legislation, a disconnection provision should be included in the Protocol authorising application of current or future community rules.
