September 2021

The European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE) is currently preparing a report on Artificial Intelligence, Platform Work and Gender Equality, which will serve as the basis for a set of draft Council Conclusions on the Impact of Artificial Intelligence on Gender Equality in the Labour Market prepared by the Presidency.

On 24 September 2021, the Presidency intends to organise a meeting of the Social Questions Working Party to discuss the draft Conclusions. The Presidency plans to invite EIGE to present its report at the beginning of this meeting, before the Working Party begins its deliberations on the text of the draft Conclusions.

Against this background, the Committee of Permanent Representatives is invited to approve the attendance of an EIGE representative at the beginning of the Social Questions Working Party meeting on 24 September 2021.
