ITEMS DEBATED

EU coordination on COVID-19

The Council discussed the state of play regarding EU coordination on COVID-19, focusing on the vaccination campaign, the ongoing work on digital green certificates, and the epidemiological situation and travel restrictions.

On 3 May, the Council, the European Parliament and the Commission held a first trilogue on the digital green certificate, intended to facilitate free movement, with a view to conclusion in June. A second trilogue will take place on 11 May.

The ongoing technical work on COVID-19 interoperable digital certificates forms part of the preparations for a common approach to the future gradual lifting of restrictions. Work is also ongoing on the revision of the Council Recommendation on travel from third countries.

Special European Council meeting on 24-25 May 2021

The Council prepared for the special European Council meeting on 24-25 May 2021.

EU leaders will meet in Brussels to coordinate the EU response to COVID-19 and discuss the latest developments.

Heads of state or government will also focus on climate change, following up on the European Council conclusions of December 2020.

Lastly, the EU leaders will turn to external relations, with a strategic debate on Russia. The 25 March statement of the members of the European Council provided for a strategic debate to be held “at a forthcoming European Council meeting”.

Conference on the Future of Europe

Ministers for European Affairs were informed by the presidency about the state of play regarding the Conference on the Future of Europe, following the formal inaugural event on 9 May in Strasbourg.

Directly before this formal event, the Conference's executive board met for the fourth time to discuss and agree on the remaining chapter of the Rules of Procedure relating to the Conference plenary. The Rules of Procedure have thus been completely finalised after the board gave the green light to the other two sections of the Conference's Rules of Procedure on 22 April, namely the section on citizens' participation and that on the board's working methods. On that occasion, the board was also informed about the practical modalities for the organisation of European citizens' panels.

On 19 April the digital platform of the Conference on the Future of Europe was launched, allowing the conversation with citizens across Europe to start. A number of ideas and events have already been posted on the platform.
