| From: | General Secretariat of the Council |
| To: | Permanent Representatives Committee |
| Subject: | European Court of Auditors' special report No 12/2025: The EU's strategy for microchips – Reasonable progress in its implementation but the Chips Act is very unlikely to be sufficient to reach the overly ambitious Digital Decade target <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Designation of a Working Party• Attendance of the European Court of Auditors at the Working Party meeting |

1. On 28 April 2025, the European Court of Auditors published its special report No 12/2025 entitled " The EU's strategy for microchips – Reasonable progress in its implementation but the Chips Act is very unlikely to be sufficient to reach the overly ambitious Digital Decade target"¹.
2. Under the rules laid down in the Council conclusions on improving the examination of special reports drawn up by the Court of Auditors², any special report from the Court of Auditors shall be thoroughly examined by a Working Party designated by the Permanent Representatives Committee.

¹ This special report is available on the Court's website: <http://eca.europa.eu>.

² Doc. 7515/00 + COR 1.

3. In this context, the Presidency considers that it is in the interest of the Council to allow the Court of Auditors to present its findings to the designated Working Party and to provide delegations with the opportunity to ask questions on the report before proceeding to its discussion.
 4. In view of the above, the Permanent Representatives Committee is:
 - suggested to instruct the Working Party on Competitiveness and Growth (Industry) to examine the report, in accordance with the rules laid down in the Council conclusions on improving the examination of special reports drawn up by the Court of Auditors;
 - for the purpose indicated under paragraph 3, invited to approve the attendance of Court of Auditors' representatives in order to present the report and respond to possible questions at the relevant forthcoming meetings of that Working Party.
