Whereas:

- (1) Regulation (EC) No 1927/2006 of the European Parliament and of the Council³ established the European Globalisation Adjustment Fund (EGF) for the multiannual financial framework from 1 January 2007 to 31 December 2013. The EGF was established to enable the Union to show solidarity towards workers who lost their jobs as a result of major structural changes in world trade patterns due to globalisation.
- (2) The scope of the EGF was broadened in 2009 as part of the European Economic Recovery Plan to include support to workers made redundant as a direct consequence of the global financial and economic crisis.

³ Regulation (EC) No 1927/2006 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 December 2006 on establishing the European Globalisation Adjustment Fund (OJ L 406, 30.12.2006, p. 1, ELI: <http://data.europa.eu/eli/reg/2006/1927/oj>).

- (3) Regulation (EU) No 1309/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council⁴ established the EGF for the period of the multiannual financial framework from 1 January 2014 to 31 December 2020. It also extended the scope of the EGF to cover redundancies resulting from any new global financial and economic crisis. Furthermore, Regulation (EU) No 1309/2013 was amended to introduce rules allowing the EGF to exceptionally cover collective applications involving small and medium-sized enterprises located in one region and operating in different economic sectors defined at NACE Revision 2 division⁵ level, where the applicant Member State demonstrates that small and medium-sized enterprises are the main or the only type of business in that region.

⁵ Regulation (EC) No 1893/2006 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 December 2006 establishing the statistical classification of economic activities NACE Revision 2 and amending Council Regulation (EEC) No 3037/90 as well as certain EC Regulations on specific statistical domains (Text with EEA relevance) (OJ L 393, 30.12.2006, p. 1, ELI: <http://data.europa.eu/eli/reg/2006/1893/oj>).

- (4) Regulation (EU) 2021/691 of the European Parliament and of the Council established the EGF for the period of the multiannual financial framework from 1 January 2021-31 December 2027. In order to make the EGF more responsive to the rapidly changing economic challenges in a globalised economy, the scope of the EGF was broadened again to cover any type of large-scale restructuring event, no matter what the cause. A lower threshold better reflects the realities in lesser populated regions. In the light of the twin digital and green transitions, measures that prepare beneficiaries for the twin transition were considered mandatory elements of every coordinated package of personalised measures offered to beneficiaries. Further, the co-financing rates were aligned with the highest co-financing rate of the European Social Fund Plus (ESF+) established by Regulation (EU) 2021/1057 of the European Parliament and of the Council⁶ in the respective Member State. Additionally, a mandatory beneficiary survey was introduced.

⁶ Regulation (EU) 2021/1057 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 June 2021 establishing the European Social Fund Plus (ESF+) and repealing Regulation (EU) No 1296/2013 (OJ L 231, 30.6.2021, p. 21, ELI: <http://data.europa.eu/eli/reg/2021/1057/oj>).

- (5) The main Union instrument to assist those workers that have been affected is the ESF+, which is designed to offer assistance in an anticipatory way. The EGF is also designed to offer assistance in response to major restructuring events. However, this set-up does not properly reflect the fact that large-scale restructuring events generally take place over a long time period. Member States can use the ESF+ to upskill and reskill workers, but the ESF+ does not provide support for the upskilling and reskilling of workers in emergency situations such as those in which workers affected by imminent job displacement are. The enterprises where the workers concerned are employed are often in economic difficulty and therefore unable to offer such assistance on their own.
- (6) The Union faces increasingly unequal competition from third countries due to the fact that they do not comply with the same level of labour rights or safety and environmental regulations. Union enterprises should be supported in their fight against unfair competition and workers should be protected from its negative consequences.

- (7) The EGF's role continues to be important as a flexible instrument to support workers who lose their jobs in large-scale restructuring events and to help them to find other jobs as quickly as possible. The Union should continue to provide specific, one-off support to facilitate the reintegration into decent and sustainable employment of displaced workers in areas, sectors, territories or labour markets suffering from a shock caused by serious economic disruption. The Union has to ensure its sustainable prosperity, strategic autonomy and competitiveness while preserving its unique social market economy, supporting workers and enterprises to ensure a just twin transition, preserving jobs in the Union and safeguarding its democracy, economic security and geopolitical standing. To safeguard the Union's future as an economic powerhouse, and progress on its twin digital and green transition, it is vital to support workers affected by imminent job displacement in enterprises undergoing restructuring so that they can acquire the skills that would help them transfer into a different role in their current or a different enterprise.

- (8) A major restructuring event undergone by an enterprise often causes restructuring events in enterprises that constitute its direct suppliers and downstream producers. In these cases, the workers affected by imminent job displacement in such direct suppliers and downstream producers may also be eligible for EGF support, provided that the requesting enterprise agrees to include them in the request submitted to the Member State. The projected collective redundancies effected by the direct suppliers and downstream producers included in the request for EGF support should take place within the same Member State as the projected collective redundancies effected by the requesting enterprise and a clear causal link between them should be established. The requesting enterprise should meet the intervention criteria on its own. The requesting enterprise takes full and sole responsibility for the submission of the request, the provision of all the necessary information to the Member States, the provision of the national co-financing, and the implementation of the co-ordinated package of measures.

(9) The EGF should support workers by developing transferable skills to avoid redundancies and to allow a smooth transition into new employment. Therefore it is necessary to amend Regulation (EU) 2021/691 so that the EGF can also offer assistance to workers affected by imminent job displacement in enterprises undergoing restructuring, as well as, where applicable, their direct suppliers and downstream producers. As these workers are still in active employment, their employer may request assistance through the relevant Member States' authorities. As the EGF is under shared management, it is the Member States' authorities that can apply for EGF co-funding upon receipt of a request by an enterprise ■ provided that the enterprise agrees to provide the national co-funding. Should the financial contribution from the EGF be granted, the Member State concerned should make the funds requested available to the enterprise within two weeks of their receipt. In particular, the enterprise should make available to the Member State all information needed to prepare the final report on the implementation of the relevant financial contribution, not later than six months after the end of the implementation of the assistance. The Commission will prepare a beneficiary survey and the requesting enterprise should share ■ access to the survey with all the workers who participated in the programme and, where applicable, with their representatives.

- (10) To enable Member States to mitigate financial risks and liabilities related to implementation of the targeted package, Member States could decide to carry out financial and administrative checks which are effective and proportionate, before submitting the application to the Commission.
- (11) The Commission and the Member States should carry out their responsibilities in a manner which takes into account the administrative costs incurred in the preparation of the application by the enterprises and the national authorities and is proportionate to the estimated financial risks connected to the application.
- (12) Restructuring processes should support, inter alia, an enterprise's economic sustainability and long-term employment stability, thus strengthening the Unions competitiveness. Therefore, restructuring plans should anticipate and manage change as early as possible to prevent insolvency and job losses, while involving workers' representatives and, where applicable, trade unions at an early stage. Both the decision by the enterprise to submit a request for EGF support and the design of the coordinated package of personalised measures should be done in consultation with the targeted beneficiaries, their representatives and the social partners as applicable in order to ensure workers' rights to information and consultation are respected in line with Union and national legislation and to ensure the quality and relevance of the measures.

- (13) Applications for financial support involving enterprises undergoing restructuring located in small labour markets or involving only SMEs should be able to be considered to be admissible even if not all eligibility criteria are met. In such cases, the reasons for not meeting all criteria should be duly substantiated in the application.
- (14) The support provided to workers affected by imminent job displacement in enterprises undergoing restructuring should complement existing forms of support available under national measures or collective agreements. The reskilling and upskilling of workers should contribute, among others, to quality jobs creation, decent working conditions and the twin digital and green transition. Short-time work schemes should not be eligible for EGF support as they do not relate to the displacement of jobs, but to their temporary suspension. If the national measures allow it, the requesting enterprise may subcontract the delivery of the coordinated package of personalised measures, or parts thereof.
- (15) The co-financing rate for such measures targeted to workers affected by imminent job displacement in enterprises undergoing restructuring should be equal to the co-financing rate for EGF assistance to displaced workers. Enterprises that request EGF support should provide the national co-financing. Where the requesting enterprise agrees to include workers of its suppliers and downstream producers in the request for EGF support, it may condition that agreement upon contributions in proportion to the support received by the workers of the suppliers and down-stream producers.

- (16) The co-financing rate for expenditure incurred by the Member State in relation to applications for EGF support and their processing, including administrative and staff costs linked to ex-ante checks, preparatory, management, information and publicity, and control and reporting activities, should be 100%.
- (17) As the workers affected by imminent job displacement are still in active employment, only those active labour market policy measures that help them reskill or upskill, or that give guidance or mentoring, including measures aimed at workers that could envisage starting their own business one day, should be eligible. Therefore, neither allowances, nor start-up grants should be eligible.
- (18) Workers affected by imminent job displacement receiving EGF assistance should remain eligible as part of the group affected by 'imminent job displacement' even if their work relationship ends. They should also remain eligible for possible new applications by the respective Member States in support of displaced workers from the same enterprise.
- (19) Given the Commission's increasing tasks in implementing Regulation (EU) 2021/691, the Commission should be able to request technical assistance of up to 1.5% of the total annual maximum amount of the EGF. The higher rate is also justified since the EGF's annual maximum amount was lowered in the context of the multiannual financial framework mid-term revision.

- (20) Given the uneven uptake of EGF support by Member States, the Commission should raise awareness of the funding opportunities available and promote its usage. Moreover, the Commission should assist Member States through technical guidance and dissemination of good practices.
- (21) Given the scale and frequency of restructuring in recent years, there are concerns that the existing EGF budget could be insufficient to meet all applications related to displaced workers and workers facing imminent displacement. Therefore, in order to ensure a balanced use of the EGF, a minimum of 40% of the annual maximum amount of the EGF should be reserved for applications concerning the cessation of activity of displaced workers or self-employed persons. In addition, any financial contribution to workers affected by imminent job displacement should be capped per enterprise, for a given Member State and for any financial year.
- (22) In order to swiftly provide support to the workers affected, taking into account that Regulation EU 2021/691 expires at the end of 2027, this Regulation should enter into force as a matter of urgency ■ on the day following that of its publication in the Official Journal of the European Union,

 - b) the information provided in accordance with paragraph 10, points d), f) and j) of this Article; and
 - c) whether the targeted package is expected to be carried out in accordance with national law;
 - d) whether there are financial risks for the Member State, including potentially fraudulent activity and the risk of double funding.

Where Member States carry out such ex-ante checks, they shall communicate the results, as well as their assessment of the request submitted by the enterprise, when submitting the application to the Commission. The Commission shall take that information into account in its assessment of the application. If the Commission's assessment differs from the results of the checks carried out by the Member State, it shall include explanations in this respect in the summary of the information on which its assessment is based, as referred to in point (a) of Article 15(3).

5. Member States shall treat all requests equally and in order of receipt without exerting any discretion regarding the admissibility and eligibility of these requests and shall submit applications for assistance received from enterprises. 10. Where the Commission requests additional information, the Member State shall reply within 15 working days of the date of the request. The Commission shall extend that deadline by 10 working days at the request of the applicant Member State. Any such requests for extension shall be duly reasoned.

11. Based on the information provided in the application, the Commission shall complete its assessment of the application's compliance with the conditions for providing a financial contribution within 50 working days of the receipt of the complete application or, where applicable, of the translation of the application. The Commission shall evaluate the information provided in accordance with paragraph 10. In its evaluation, the Commission shall also assess the adequacy of the consultation process referred to in Article 7(4) of this Regulation and of the coordinated package.

Where the Commission is unable to meet that deadline, it shall inform the applicant Member State before the expiry of the deadline, explaining the reasons for the delay and setting a new date for the completion of its assessment. That new date shall be no later than 20 working days after the deadline under the first subparagraph.

- (e) a brief description of the events that led to the restructuring;
- (f) where the application includes workers affected by imminent job displacement in the direct suppliers or downstream producers of the requesting enterprise, a reasoned analysis provided by the requesting enterprise detailing a clear causal link between the projected collective redundancies effected by the direct suppliers and downstream producers and the projected collective redundancies effected by the requesting enterprise;

- (g) a confirmation that the enterprise has complied and continues to comply with its legal obligations, including those as set out in Article 2 of Directive 98/59/EC and any collective agreements governing those projected redundancies and is providing for its workers accordingly. This confirmation provided by the Member State shall be based on information provided by the enterprise ;
- (h) a description of the procedures followed by the enterprise for consulting, the targeted beneficiaries or their representatives, as applicable, regarding the design of the coordinated package, as well as the description of the procedures for the consultation of the local and regional authorities or other relevant stakeholders as applicable;
- (i) an explanation of the extent to which the recommendations set out in the EU Quality Framework for anticipation of change and restructuring have been taken into account and, where applicable, how the coordinated package complements actions funded by other Union or national funds;
- (j) an estimated breakdown of the composition of the targeted beneficiaries by gender, age group and educational level, used in the design of the coordinated package;

- (k) a detailed description of the coordinated package and related expenditure, including any measures in support of employment initiatives for disadvantaged, young and older beneficiaries;
- (l) the estimated budget for each of the components of the coordinated package in support of the targeted beneficiaries that will be offered by the enterprise;
- (m) the dates on which the provision of the coordinated package to the targeted beneficiaries and the activities to implement the EGF, as set out in Article 7, were started or are due to be started;
