Regulation to prevent and combat child sexual abuse

On 11 May 2022, the Commission adopted a legislative proposal laying down rules to prevent and combat child sexual abuse (CSA) . The proposal was examined at the Law Enforcement Working Party – Police. A partial mandate for negotiations with the European Parliament was agreed by the Permanent Representatives Committee on 26 November 2025. The partial mandate does not include the provisions on the seat of the future “EU Centre”, which are subject to a parallel interinstitutional procedure that can be launched once there is clarity about its tasks.

In the European Parliament, the Committee on Civil Liberties, Justice and Home Affairs (LIBE) has the lead responsibility for the negotiations on the proposal. The LIBE Committee adopted the report prepared by the rapporteur, MEP Javier Zarzalejos (EPP, ES) on 14 November 2023, and the decision to enter interinstitutional negotiations was confirmed on 22 November 2023.

The interinstitutional negotiations on the CSA Regulation were launched under the Danish Presidency with a first trilogue on 9 December 2025. Technical work has started under the Cyprus Presidency to prepare trilogues on 26 February, 16 April and 11 May 2026. A mandate for negotiations with the European Parliament was agreed by the Permanent Representatives Committee on 28 January 2026, accepting the Commission’s proposal. The European Parliament agreed on its position at the plenary meeting on 11 March 2026, insisting on substantial amendments beyond the extension date. Co-legislators did not reach political agreement at the trilogue meetings on 12 and 16 March 2026. Subsequently, the European Parliament rejected the proposal in first reading at the plenary meeting on 26 March 2026 and the Interim Regulation expired on 3 April 2026.

Regulation on measures against transport operators that facilitate or engage in trafficking in persons or smuggling of migrants in relation to illegal entry into the territory of the European Union

On 23 November 2021, the Commission presented a proposal for a Regulation on measures against transport operators that facilitate or engage in trafficking in persons or smuggling of migrants in relation to illegal entry into the territory of the European Union. The proposal is based on Article 91 and Article 100(2) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union.

The proposal was initially examined by the Working Party of Foreign Relations Counsellors as lead preparatory body. On 9 January 2025, the Polish Presidency announced in Coreper that the file would be reattributed to the Justice and Home Affairs Counsellors, reinforced by other experts where appropriate. Six JHA Counsellors meetings took place from January to June 2025 to examine the proposal and discuss three versions of a Presidency compromise text. On 27 June 2025, a progress report was presented to Coreper by the Polish Presidency.

Long-Term Residents Directive

At the last trilogue on 1 June 2026, the co-legislators reached an agreement on the last remaining issue on Article 52, regarding the entry into application. The provisional agreement will now be presented at Coreper meeting on 10 June 2026.
