Subject:	Council Recommendations endorsing the national medium-term fiscal-structural plans of 21 Member States

On 26 November 2024, the European Commission transmitted to the Council its Recommendations for Council Recommendations regarding the endorsement of national medium-term fiscal-structural plans and setting the net expenditure path of 21 Member States, pursuant to Regulation (EU) 2024/1263.

In line with Article 17 of Regulation (EU) 2024/1263, upon a recommendation from the Commission, the Council shall adopt a recommendation setting the net expenditure path of the Member State concerned and, where applicable, endorsing the set of reform and investment commitments underpinning an extension of the adjustment period included in the national medium-term fiscal-structural plan.

The adoption of the Recommendations by the Council is scheduled to take place at its meeting of 21 January 2025. The final versions of the Recommendations are set out in the annex.

A Council explanatory note accompanying the Council recommendations endorsing the national medium-term fiscal-structural plans of Member States is set out in document 5040/25. A statement by the Council regarding these recommendations is set out in document 5041/25.
