

Parliament
Austria

Parliamentary Administration

“Research Year in Parliament”

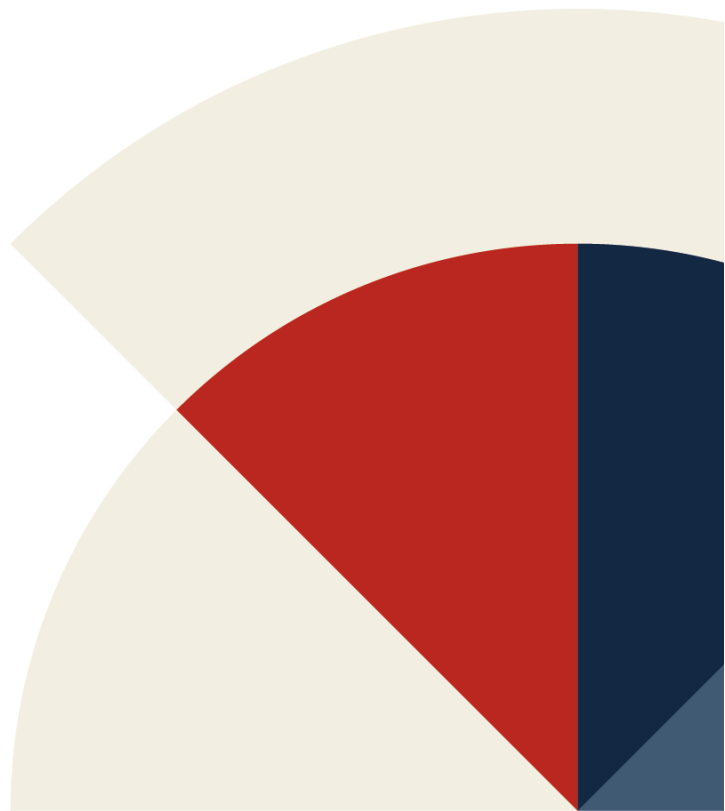

Form “Submission of project idea”

December 2024

Dep. 3.2 – Research and Support in Parliamentary Matters

parlamentsforschung@parlament.gv.at

+43 1 401 10-2668

Preliminary remarks

This form must be completed in full and in accordance with the formal requirements by the researcher who developed the project idea and – if selected – will carry out the respective research project.

In order to be considered in the selection process for the "Research Year in Parliament", the completed form must be signed by the applicant and sent to parlamentsforschung@parlament.gv.at together with all other required documents by March 4, 2025 at the latest.

Required documents (to be submitted in PDF format):

- ◆ Completed and signed form "Submission of project idea"
- ◆ Proof of the highest successfully completed degree program
- ◆ Academic curriculum vitae (incl. list of publications)

For details concerning the selection criteria and process as well as further information on the contract for work and services to be awarded, see the document "Information on submission and selection process", to be downloaded at Parliamentary Research | Parliament Austria.

If you have any questions, please contact the staff of Department 3.2 Research and Support in Parliamentary Matters (for contact details see cover page).

Overview

Project title
First and last name
E-Mail-address
Telephone number
Home address
Completed study (Academic degree, field of study, university/university of applied sciences; multiple answers possible)
One to three scientific disciplines in which the project can be categorized
Current institution/position of the applicant (Note: If currently there is no institutional affiliation, please state the last institution/position incl. end date).

Information on the processing of your personal data by the Parliamentary Administration can be found in our Privacy Statement.

With my signature, I acknowledge the guidelines for submission (document "Information on submission and selection process") and confirm that the information I have provided is correct.

Furthermore, I confirm that I am neither in an employment or training relationship with the Parliamentary Administration (incl. temporary employment via a personnel service provider).

Place and date

Signature of the applicant
(handwritten or digital)

Keywords (max. 5)

Abstract (max. 2000 characters)

Research question/research objective (max. 2000 characters)

Scientific state of the art and preparatory work (if available) (max. 3000 characters)

What research gap(s) does the project address? To what extent is the project innovative? (max. 2000 characters)

Description of the scientific method (max. 3000 characters)

Time and work plan (max. 2000 characters)

Which data, materials, etc. – including data, materials, etc. provided by the Austrian Parliament or the Parliamentary Administration - are expected to be used? (max. 3000 characters)

How can the project contribute to the development of the knowledge resources of the Parliamentary Administration and the Austrian Parliament (see document “Information on Submission and Selection Process”), their usability (e. g. for researchers, political actors, the public), their contextualization and/or their processing? (max. 2000 characters)

What are the benefits of the project for the Parliamentary Administration and parliamentary democracy? (max. 2000 characters)

What output is expected, respectively how should the results of the project be disseminated? (e. g. scientific publications; articles in news media, blog posts, etc.; presentations and participation in conferences; integration into teaching and/or political education) (max. 2000 characters)

Miscellaneous (max. 2000 characters)

Relevant literature (max. 2000 characters)